McMinnville 4th of July Celebration

Vendor/Booth Form

The McMinnville 4th of July Celebration is a patriotic event that brings people of all ages to downtown McMinnville the morning of July 4th. All booths and vendors are asked to don their booths with patriotic affair. Persons setting up booths should arrive no later than 6:30 AM on the morning of the 4th. This is to insure that everyone is ready to go at 7:00 AM. With the 5K that morning even though it is early there will be people interested in your booth by the seven o clock hour. You will be expected to stay open until noon. This event is free of charge for approved vendors and non-profit booths and a great opportunity for you to market yourself.
