The City of Volga

You'll love it here!

The City of Volga and Volga Development Corporation (VDC) want to thank all the residents and businesses for being a part of our community and welcome all visitors to our growing city. Our city continues to grow in single-family houses, multi-family units, businesses, and overall footprint. Volga has grown over 25% in population since 2010 as we are now home to over 2,340 residents. Over the past few years, the city has seen growth and changes in the following ways:

- New single family and multi-family housing on the eastern and western ends of the city.
- New underground water piping to connect various dead-end points to improve the overall distribution system.
- A new 69kV transmission line to connect our east and west substations for better reliability and stability of our electric distribution system.
- New businesses and buildings downtown, Creekside Industrial Park, Industrial Drive, Caspian Ave, and HWY 14.
- Reconstruction of Samara Ave with a new shared-use path from 1st Street to 7th Street.
- Expanded community gardens and additions to the public archery range.
- New infield turf at Hoff Field and overall improvements to the softball and baseball fields.
- New additions and improvements at Meadow Creek Golf Course.
- Expanded Parks & Recreation programs.

And we are not done yet! We will continue to grow housing, infrastructure, businesses, and amenities while providing excellent customer service. Possibilities for the future include:

- Additional housing primarily on the west side of Volga.
- Exploration, planning, and building new city ballfields.
- Revitalization and infill of underutilized properties in current city limits.
- Electric substation expansion and improvements.
- Continuous maintenance, updates, and improvements to the water, wastewater, and electric systems.

If you or someone you know wants to start, move, or expand your business or simply find a place to call home, the City of Volga and the Volga Development Corporation want to work for you to make this happen. Grants, rebates, and incentives are available to benefit your home or business. Check out our website, www.volgacity.com, follow us on Facebook, sign up for our monthly newsletter, or simply contact the City or a member of the VDC to connect you to the right people or resources to find or build a home, locate business or lot space, and have you grow with us! You'll love it here!

Welcome to VOLGA

As the Mayor of Volga, I would like to welcome you to our fine city. We are very proud of our wide streets, and that curb and gutter is on every street. We also have an excellent staff who are always willing to answer questions and try to address your concerns. Growth has been very steady in Volga for over a decade, and it continues to grow. Along with growth comes some growing pains and Volga is no different then any other city in this aspect. But I can tell you this as Mayor, Council, and staff we will try our best to make them growing pains as painless as possible. We have many new projects going here in the city like finishing Samara Avenue, upgrading our east substation, looking for property to build a new baseball and softball complex, and providing help to our economic development partners. I ask that not only new residents but also existing residents if you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact either myself, the city administrator, or any council member with your concerns. I would also like to thank all the businesses here in town and ask all our residents to please do all the business you can locally. Our businesses have put a lot of money and resources into their businesses, and I know they would really appreciate your business. As Mayor I just want to give you a warm welcome and thank you for choosing Volga as your place to call home.

Mayor Ken Fideler

The City of Volga

Incremental Growth Continues!

I have been fortunate enough to be Volga's City Administrator for the past 5 years and I can safely say there has not been a dull moment working for this community! Incremental growth has been the overall theme for a few decades which has brought the city to a new level over the course of time. We have grown thoughtfully and steadily, which allows us to provide the proper infrastructure for growth while ensuring current residents are being served with proper care and attention. As we continue to plan for the future, I am excited to see what will be built and brought to our vibrant community.

Michael Schulte
City Administrator

I personally want to thank each resident, property owner, business owner, our schools, our volunteers, and our visitors for making Volga one of the great small-towns in our state and in the Midwest. Without your support and contributions to our community, we would not be where we are today! As a city, we strive to provide excellent services, proper attention to our infrastructure and amenities, and continuous planning to improve and grow our city. Whether you are a life-long resident, a new resident, or a visitor, please check out all Volga has to offer including our businesses, new housing, community gardens, archery range, dog park, city pool, our city auditorium and community center, and all our parks. Our website, www.volgacity.com is a great place to explore our business directory, amenities, and any resources you may need. Stay in communication with us by following our Facebook page, subscribing to our monthly newsletter, and signing up for alerts when we send out timely information.

Thank you again for living in and supporting our community!

Brookings County Museum

Horse Drawn Museum

The Brookings County Museum is located in the Volga City Park on Samara Avenue. It is managed and maintained by the Brookings County Historical Society and boasts an impressive array of artifacts dating to the earliest days of pioneer settlement in the area.

The museum complex began with the main building, which was built in 1969.

The five other structures completing the complex include the original one-room 1880 Christianson Family School; the 1870 Sundet Log Home; a large pole building housing vintage farm equipment; the 1884 Hauxhurst Home, which was moved to the museum complex from its original site in Brookings and the newly constructed Trygve Trooien horse-drawn museum.

The museum's collection includes more than 6,000 artifacts and many bound volumes, which chronicle the lives of our predecessors in the county. If you're seeking information about the history of your family or the area, you may be able to find it in the Chuck Cecil Archives Room.

The Brookings County Museum has no paid employees and operates on a stipend from the Brookings County Commission and donations, which are always welcomed. Volunteers and history buffs keep the museum open daily from 1-4 p.m., Memorial Day through Labor Day. Admission is free.

Old Timers Weekend

The second full weekend of June is set aside for a city-wide celebration in Volga. The weekend brings together the community for a variety of events, including many rummage sales, games for kids, fireworks and a barbecue at the golf course, class reunions, arts in the park, a 5K run, street dance, water games by the Fire Department and the parade. Like most small-town parades there are flag bearers, fire trucks, tractors, business floats, political candidates, horses, old cars, and candy throwing. Mark your calendar and bring a lawn chair to enjoy the fun.

If you have interest in helping plan next years event email lindsey@volgacity.com to be apart of the Old Timers Day Committee.

Every Brick Tells A Story

In the summer of 2018 construction was completed on the Volga Veterans Memorial, a long-held dream of many area veterans and their families. Blaine Hoff, an active member of the Volga American Legion Post 114, approached fellow vets several years ago with the idea. A committee to explore the potential for a memorial honoring those who have served our country in the military was formed. Tours of other memorials in the region were conducted and Marvel Rindel came forward with an idea for a design based on a memorial in Iowa. The sketches were taken to Banner Associates in Brookings who designed the structure and provided a rendering.

Area contractors were asked for their input and Randy Gross of Gross Construction in Volga was chosen as the builder. Fund-raising and site selection began in earnest. Volga Veterans Memorial Committee Chairwoman, Rebecca Trygstad of Volga said there were a variety of events such as a raffle and rummage sale to raise the money. In addition, many area businesses and community members made donations and a grant from the South Dakota Community Foundation helped the group reach their financial goal so construction could begin.

The memorial is three-sided with each side containing two panels of bricks. The bricks are engraved with the names of service members. There are more than 250 bricks already installed with more to be added in spring 2019. There is plenty of space available for bricks to be added in honor of veterans associated with the area. The engraved bricks cost $100 and Trygstad said interested parties should contact her at 605.695.7130.

Several poles bearing the American flag, those of all of the military branches and the POW/MIA flag surround the structure and Clites Electric of Brookings installed lighting. A trio of granite benches were donated by: Rolling Thunder, Chapter 2 of Brookings, recognizing POW/MIAs; Mary Negstad Johnson, honoring former husband Richard Negstad; and Beverly Bjerke and Russell and Mary Bjerke in honor of Gerald Bjerke.

The Volga Veterans Memorial is located on Samara Avenue on the grounds of the Volga City Park and adjacent to the Brookings County Museum. Residents and visitors are encouraged to view the memorial or sit on one of the benches to contemplate the sacrifices of those honored and remember that every brick tells a story.

Parks & Recreation

Don and Roma Peeke Park is located on Samara Avenue, on the west side of town. Features include a large pool with bathhouse; a large playground; picnic areas, a sand volleyball court and a disc golf course.
A second playground was installed on the east side of Volga in 2017 at the East Side Park. It provides a place for families to enjoy fresh air and sunshine.

The City of Volga offers a recreation program for children during the summer. They include Red Cross swimming lessons, basketball, volleyball and a theatre camp among other opportunities.

Activities are held at the City Park, City Auditorium and Community Center as well as other locations. Sign-up on-line for the summer programs. Along with our new community engagement coordinator, Volga officials are working on expanding park and recreation programs all year round. The city offers many coaching, umping and lifeguarding opportunities for youth and adults.

Call the City of Volga at 605-627-9113 for mor information about these programs.

Golf

Meadow Creek Golf Course is located on the southeast edge of Volga and is open for the public to enjoy. The 25 year-old, 9-hole, par 36 course is considered a challenge by members and visitors. Other features include league play; a driving range; cart storage and rental; a clubhouse with a pro shop, and full-service bar and kitchen. For more information, call 605-627-5444 in season or visit meadowcreekvolga.com.

Area Lakes & State Parks

Volga is located within a half-hour of three SD State Parks which are adjacent to some of the most popular lakes in the state. State Park permits are required for access to the parks, but public beaches and boat launches are also available. Camping is available at all of the parks and reservations for camping spots can be made at CampSD.com or 800-710-2267.

Oakwood Lakes State Park is just seven miles north and three west of Volga; Lake Poinsett State Park is 20 minutes northwest of town and Lake Thompson State Recreation Area is 20 minutes southwest of Volga and is on the largest natural lake in the state.

All of these lakes and parks are known for their exceptional facilities and abundance of outdoor activities including boating and water sports, hiking, camping, fishing, and cross-country skiing. Lake Poinsett has the most established commercial and residential development.

Hunting

Brookings County offers fantastic hunting opportunities for deer, pheasants, ducks and geese in season. There are many public hunting areas within a short drive of Volga. Hunting and fishing license information is available on the South Dakota Game, Fish & Parks website: gfp.sd.gov.

Sioux Valley Public Schools

Sioux Valley Public Schools 'Expect Excellence' from their students, faculty and staff and strive every day to provide the highest quality education to all who attend junior-kindergarten through twelfth grade. The district is comprised of students from Volga, Sinai and Bruce as well as students who choose to open enroll.

All facilities are located on the campus on Hansina Avenue between 1st and 4th Streets in Volga. In addition to classrooms for instruction, the complex includes a library; laboratories; two gymnasiums; a fine arts center and a large commons area.

Headquartered in Volga, SD, South Dakota Soybean processors now operates three plants serving our local growers of soybeans and non-GMO soybeans. Our value starts with the farmer, and after harvest, the quality soybeans are processed through our soybean plant extracting oil and utilizing every part of each soybean to deliver a variety of products used in food, feed, renewable fuel and various other industries.

Examples include:

Soybean Meal – an important source of high protein feed for swine, poultry, and cattle diets.

Soybean Oil – used in many products like salad dressings, mayonnaise, and cooking oils, as well as biofuels, and industrial applications.

Soybean Hulls – a high fiber ingredient in many cattle rations.

SDSP employs 130 people in Volga and provides for employees with top wages, benefits and a balanced life with a culture oriented to family and focused on Safety.

The school district has expanded its facilities with an elementary addition that consists of eleven classrooms, a multi-purpose room, a secure entrance, and relocated office areas. This addition opened with the start of the 2018-19 school year and is fully utilized.

The Performing Arts Center, which opened in 2014 features a beautiful 400-seat auditorium for theater and musical productions, as well as areas for choral and instrumental music. The facility is a combination of new space and renovated space from the 1925 school.

In addition to offering the traditional academic areas of studies, the district offers fine arts, agricultural, building trades, and family and consumer science courses. Dual credit courses are offered to upperclassmen and many take advantage of this opportunity to gain college credits at a lower cost. A variety of extracurricular opportunities are available, including nearly 20 options in athletics, student leadership and fine arts. Sioux Valley's administration and faculty are recognized as leaders in developing and implementing innovative strategies to improve learning outcomes. The district is governed by a five-member school board, elected from candidates who reside within the boundaries of the district.

Superintendent, Laura Schuster said, "One of my favorite quotes is by William A. Foster. He stated, 'Quality is never an accident. It is always the result of high intention, sincere effort, intelligent direction, and skillful execution.' As superintendent of this district, I am committed to providing our students with a high-quality education, a healthay and safe learning atmosphere and an environment where they can develop their skills to reach their full potential and a place they can be proud of."

Schuster added, "It is my distinct privilege to serve as the superintendent of the Sioux Valley School District. We have a board which provides excellent leadership, quality staff members who have the interests of the students at heart and students who strive to excel at all they undertake."

More information about academics, extracurricular events, faculty contacts and opportunities for community involvement is available on the district's website: svs.k12.sd.us. Cossack, derived from the Turkic term kazak, means 'free man' or adventurer. Cossacks originated as an elite fighting force in southern Russia. They were well-known for their excellence in horsemanship and military skills; were required to be Christians and believed in democratic ideals.

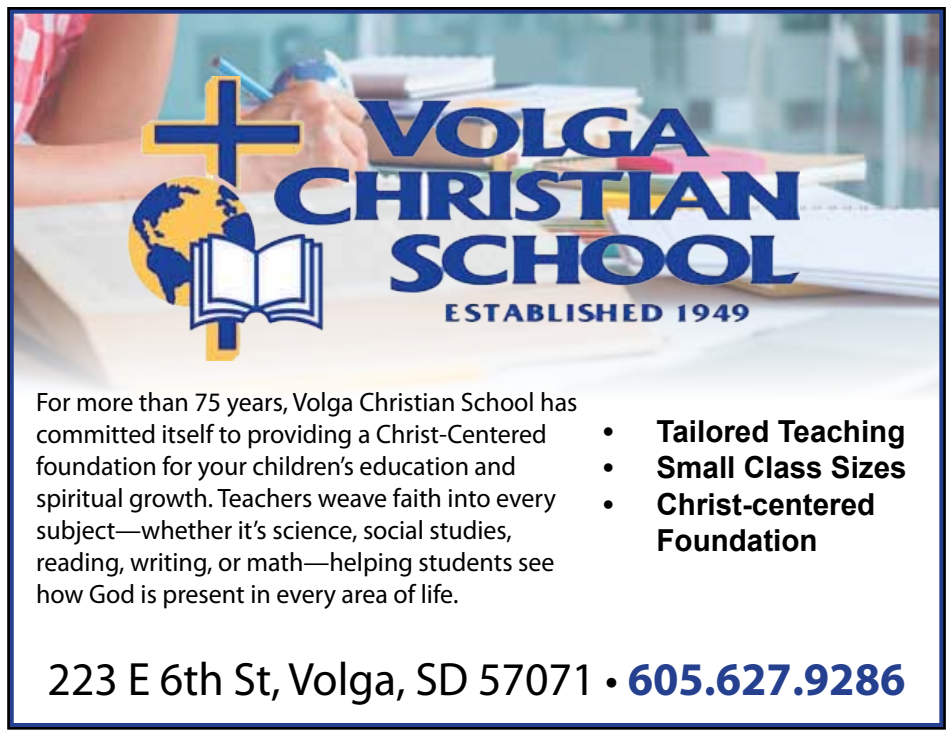
Volga Christian School

With 70 years of history (founded in 1949), the Volga Christian School offers a fully accredited academic program for preschool through eighth grade students. Christian families have come together to provide an excellent and broad educational program so their children may grow and mature into perceptive and caring Christians with life-encompassing obedience to God.

A dedicated group of supporters worked for many years to see the dream of a new school structure come to life and in March 2015 when Volga Christian School opened the doors to a new building in their location on Sixth Street in Volga. The school was designed to provide for future expansion and will serve students and their families for many years to come.

For more information, visit volgachristianschool.org; call the school at 605-627-9286; visit us at 223 E. 6th Street or email us at volgachristian@yahoo.com



For more than 75 years, Volga Christian School has committed itself to providing a Christ-Centered foundation for your children's education and spiritual growth. Teachers weave faith into every subject—whether it's science, social studies, reading, writing, or math—helping students see how God is present in every area of life.
