LAND USE PLANNING

- Land Use Planning really came about in the 1960s. That is when the state was looking to coordinate State, regional and local growth management.
- State Planning Goals and guidelines where development in 1968 along with the Planning & Development Act (24 VSA Chapter 117), the bible with regarding to Planning and Zoning.
- Then of course Act 250 came to be in 1970.
- Many towns around the state where slow to get into the state required planning process.
- Barre Town began to really look into it in the late 1980s when they commissioned a joint study with Barre City.
- By 1991 some 67 Town citizens formed numerous committees to create the Barre Town Plan which to a large degree is the same plan we have today.
WHAT IS A TOWN PLAN?

Town plans, also called comprehensive plans, lay out a vision for the town for a decade or so.

A Town Plan has influence on many Town policies, ordinances, and Bylaws. For example, while not required to be included in a Town Plan, if the Town had a certain vision of how they want their Zoning to look, laying it out in the Plan is a good start.

Towns are not required to have a Plan. However, one is required if a Town wants to have any of the following.

- Adopt/update zoning, subdivision regulations.
- Apply for Community Development Grants
- State designations such as a Village Center or Downtown.
- To be considered during ACT 250 and Section 248 reviews.

Plans must also be approved by the Regional Planning Commission.

The Barre Town Municipal Plan (the “Plan”) is a guide to long range land use and development in the Town and is a plan which reflects the vision and the values of its citizens.

By state law, town plans must be reviewed, revised and re-adopted every eight years or face expiration status.

The Plan lays-out goals, recommendations and possible policies for future growth and to do so in a comprehensive, coordinated and cooperative fashion while promoting the common good and respecting the rights of individual landowners.

Mr. Violette mentioned the Central Vermont Regional Planning Commission (CVRPC) had previewed the draft Town Plan and had submitted its comments for consideration:

Land Use
Include language the Town seeks to pursue State Village Designation for any of the villages there should be language in the plan with regards to the town’s intent and Community Development (ACCD).

Barre Town may consider applying for village center designation through the Agency of Commerce and Community Development (ACCD).

Mr. Gilbar mentioned he was concerned that there would be strings attached to village designations and what consequences would apply. Mr. Violette stated it would provide benefits for village designations. Mr. Atwood explained it is setting the town up for potential future application for village designations.

Energy & Energy Plan (Addendum)

Mr. Clain suggested rewording the last sentence to the Solar Energy section of the Energy Plan: with concerns it was not strict enough to protect the hill sides and ridgelines.
Renewables shall not be sited so that they are predominately visible from hillsides or ridgelines unless determined to be preferred location by the Planning Commission and Selectboard and shall be sited to preserve open space.

(CVRPC) Energy chapter and Addendum Energy Plan:  a. mention under “Visual Mitigation”: “Commercial solar arrays larger than 500kW would encompass a land mass greater than any other structure within Barre Town and even with somewhat rolling topography can not be screened or mitigated to blend into the town’s landscape or rural cultural aesthetics and are therefore prohibited.
