“HISTORIC LANDMARK” MEANS A STRUCTURE, GROUP OF STRUCTURES OR SITE WHICH:

(A) Is indicative of historical or cultural importance evidenced in any of the following ways:

- (1) Has significant character, interest or value, as part of the development, heritage or cultural characteristics of the city, state or nation; or
- (2) Is associated with a person or persons who significantly contributed to the culture and development of the city, state or nation; or
- (3) Is the site of an historic event with a significant effect on society; or
- (4) Exemplifies the area, property or site of the cultural, political, economic, social or historic heritage of the city, state or nation; or

(B) Is indicative of architectural or engineering importance evidenced in any of the following ways:

- (1) Is a portrayal of the environment of a group of people in an era of history characterized by a distinctive architectural style; or
- (2) Embodies the distinguishing characteristics of an architectural type or specimen; or
- (3) Is identified as the work of an architect or master builder whose individual work has influenced the development of the city, state or nation; or
- (4) Contains elements of design, detail, materials or craftsmanship which represent a significant architectural or structural innovation; or

(C) Is indicative of geographic importance as part of or related to a square, park or other distinctive area.

Landmarks, sites and districts of historical, cultural or social importance to the community, or cemeteries, birthplaces or graves of historical figures, properties owned by local institutions, structures moved from original locations, reconstructed historic buildings, or properties achieving significance within the past fifty (50) years shall not be considered eligible for designation unless the structure is a:

- (1) Property significant because of architectural or artistic distinction or historical importance; or
- (2) Building or structure moved from its original location but significant for architectural value, or is the surviving structure associated with a historical person or event; or
- (3) Birthplace or grave of a historical figure if no other appropriate site or building associated with that figure exists; or
- (4) Cemetery significant by containing graves of important persons, from age, from design features or from association with historic events; or
- (5) Reconstructed buildings executed in a suitable environment and presented as part of a restoration master plan when no other building or structure with the same association survives; or
- (6) Property commemorative in intent of design, age, tradition or symbolic value invested with its own historical significance; or
- (7) Property achieving significance within the past fifty (50) years if exceptionally important or unique; or
- (8) Building, structure or property that is an integral part of an historic district.
