

Altoona Arts and Culture Commission
Regular Meeting
Monday, April 4, 2022 | 12:00PM

The Altoona Arts and Culture Commission met on Monday, April 4, 2022 at noon at City Hall. Members present were Sarah Kavalier, Chris Lynn, Jackie Teeple, Elizabeth Burns-Thompson, John Harrenstein, and Beth Van Ryswyk. | Missing were: Joshua Brown, Mike Lambert, Alex Payne

Waiting on a couple members of the Commission to arrive, we moved forward with the agenda and moved approval of March Minutes to next month's agenda.

Visitors: New City Administrator, John Harrenstein joined the Commission meeting and gave introductions.

Breakdown of the Spaghetti Session with Prioritization:

Short Term:

- Neighborhood Grants for beautification
  - Neighborhood Associations
    - Framework Lead: Sarah
    - Pilot Example
- ARToona - Integration on the new City Website
  - Content Creation Fall '22
    - Lead: Beth
- QR Codes for existing Art and trails.
  - Visit Altoona
    - MACLYN

Long Term:

- Corn Anniversary
  - Historical Society
    - Framework Lead: Alex?
- City Hall Art
  - Temporary Art Displays
    - Lead: Chris

Council and Staff Updates: The Roundabout Art, Woven Lines will be installed late summer/early fall. Discussion held on hopefully having an unveiling.

Chris made a motion to adjourn. Jackie seconded. All ayes. 1:00PM

Our next meeting will be on May 2, 2022 at City Hall.