

Village of Arlington Heights Proclamation
Women's History Month
March 2023

WHEREAS, after being petitioned by the National Women's History Project, Congress passed a resolution designating the month of March 1987 as the first National Women's History Month,

WHEREAS, the purpose of Women's History Month is to celebrate the vital contributions women have made to the United States and to recognize the specific achievements women have made over the course of American history in a variety of fields; and

WHEREAS, women from every walk of life have made possible the growth and strength of our country in countless recorded and unrecorded ways; and

WHEREAS, the diverse women in our community play a critical economic, cultural, and social role in every sphere of life; and

WHEREAS, The Village of Arlington Heights pays tribute to the women on our staff, who serve as leaders in the community on a daily basis, across all of our departments; and

WHEREAS, the Village also recognizes and applauds the women in our community who have devoted their lives and talents to producing art and news, pursuing truth and reflecting society decade after decade; and

WHEREAS, in honoring the 36th National International Women's Month, we support the 2023 theme of "Celebrate Women Who Tell Our Stories," recognizing women of past and present who have been active in all types of media and storytelling.

THEREFORE, be it proclaimed by the Village of Arlington Heights, that the month of March is celebrated as National Women's History Month.
