Open the Splashtop Business shortcut on your desktop.
Put in your work email address and the password you chose when you accepted the invitation.
Leave the Stay logged in box checked for convenience.
Click on OK and then open your email to authorize the PC to use the software.
Click the Authorize this device link to complete the process. After the success screen appears you can close your web browser.