Protection from mosquitoes:

This does not eliminate risk or does it eliminate the need for the use of repellents or clothing for outdoor activities during periods of high EEE risk.

Established standardized recommendations for cancellation times of given day. These approximations are often used to and predicted and cannot be predicted precisely for any key factors including temperature, cloud cover, wind,

The exact timing of this increased activity is influenced dark. The exact timing of this increased activity is influenced time period between when the sun sets and 6 am. Similarly to the

EEE) recommended cancellation times for outdoor activities in areas of high risk for Eastern Equine Encephalitis (EEE)

2012