

NEW AND NOTABLE

Our first regular Friends of the Library Book Sale since 2019 is happening in October! See the insert for dates and mark your calendars!

Another Adult Reading Program begins on October 17th and ends on January 14th. Pick up a form at the circulation desk and track your reading for a chance to win prizes.

Thank you to the Friends of the Library!

The Friends of the Brookings Public Library voted to contribute a total of $2,960 to the Brookings Public Library for the following:

- Claude Bourbon guitar concert (April 2022)
- Catering for Black History month program (February 2022)
- Spice Club supplies for a year
- Adult Craft supplies for a year
- Adult and Teen STEAM program supplies or speaker costs
- Wellness/Workout Kits

Donations, membership dues, and book/magazine/DVD sales allow the Friends to contribute to the mission and goals of the Brookings Public Library. If you want to learn more about what the Friends do or want to become a member, be sure to come to the Friends annual meeting on October 21st at 5:30pm. You can also visit bit.ly/FOLmember to become a member now or make a secure online donation through PayPal to the Friends so that they can continue funding for items and programs like those listed above!

"Everything Including the Kitchen Sink: The Science and Politics of Your Drinking Water" Panel Discussion

Wednesday, October 13 at 6:30pm
on Zoom

The Brookings Human Rights Commission, Brookings Sustainability Council, and the Brookings Public Library will host a virtual panel discussion in conjunction with South Dakota State University's Common Read program.

This panel discussion is one in a series of events in the Campus/Community Common Read program, designed to enhance engagement with the book What the Eyes Don't See by Mona Hanna-Attisha. Take advantage of this opportunity to unite with the Brookings and SDSU communities to learn more about the management and distribution of safe drinking water. Panelists will include city officials, civil engineers, water workers, and representatives of the Indigenous and environmental communities.

The Zoom link can be found in the Library's website or Facebook page.

Community Art Project: Record Decorating (RR)

Tuesday, October 19 at 6:00pm in the Library's Cooper room!

Come to the Library and make a unique piece of art by painting or putting together a multimedia creation on recycled records.

After the event, these records will be put on display and the community will have a chance to vote on their favorite.

This is a teen and adult program.
Registration begins on October 12th and information on the display and voting is to be announced. This event is co-hosted by the Brookings Arts Council.

"BBC, But You Do Not Observe: Sociopathy and Sherlock Holmes" Talk

October 21 @ 6:30pm on Zoom and streamed in the Cooper Room

Inspired by the line of dialogue in the BBC Sherlock series with Benedict Cumberbatch: "I'm not a psychopath, I'm a high functioning sociopath," this 40-minute presentation explores the literary world of Sherlock Holmes and the clinical world dealing with antisocial personality disorder.

The Zoom link for this program can be found on the Library's website or Facebook page.

(RR) - registration required

Haunted Gingerbread House Decorating Competition (RR)

Tuesday, October 26 at 6:30pm in the Library's Cooper room!

For this in-person competition, teams will have 45 minutes to build and decorate their own haunted gingerbread house.

Construction materials for the houses, icing, and candy decorations will be provided, though you are welcome to bring special items from home. Winners will receive a prize and bragging rights!

Space is limited, so be sure to register starting on October 19th. This is an all-ages event.

To-Go Spice of Life Club: Turmeric (RR)

Participants will receive kits containing pre-measured spices, information, and a recipe to cook at home. This month's spice is Turmeric and the kit will include a recipe for Maaquoda (North African Potato Fritters)! Pick-up will be the week of October 25.

Registration is required each month. To join this month call the Library on October 18 to sign up. Space is limited.

Adult Trivia Night (RR)

Friday, October 29 at 6:30pm in the Library's Cooper room

Gather your friends and put your minds to the test at our trivia night. This is a non-pub pub-quiz, so ages 16 and up are invited to join. Popcorn is provided. Please contact the Library to register your team of 4 or fewer starting October 25!

Native American Heritage Month Speaker Series

Tuesdays in November @ 6:30pm in the Cooper Room and on Zoom

In honor of Native American Heritage Month, the Library is hosting speakers from across the state and country to discuss Native history, culture, and issues. Zoom links for these events can be found on the Library's website and Facebook page.

November 2- "Seven Things Everyone Should Know About American Indians in South Dakota" by Dr. Craig Howe

November 9- Hoop Dancing Demonstration by Starr Chief Eagle (all-ages event)

November 16- "Violence Against Indigenous Relatives: Settler Colonialism's Impacts Then & Now" by Taté Walker

November 23- "Haudenosaunee Women Lacrosse Players: Making Meaning through Rematriation" by Dr. Sharity Bassett

November 30- "Water: Lakota Spirituality and Science" by Jerome Kills Small

Further descriptions of these events will be listed on the Library's calendar and in flyers at the Circulation desk.

These presentations are made possible through a grant from the South Dakota Humanities Council.

Take the 1000 Books Before Kindergarten Challenge

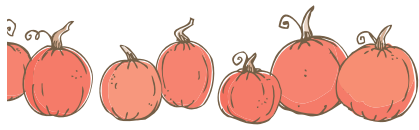

Help your child prepare for one of life's biggest milestones: Kindergarten! Does it sound hard? Not really if you think about it!

- * If you read just 1 book a night, you will have read 365 books in a year.
- * In two years that is 730 books!
- * 1,095 books in three years!!!

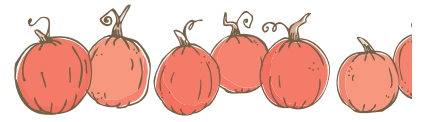

After the first 100 books, your child's picture is added to our display. We look forward to celebrating with you when you complete the challenge.

Stop by the Library's circulation desk and pick up your first reading log.
