* Reduced Fare Rides apply to the following: people 62 or older, people with disabilities, veterans, students, and low income. Please contact the Transit Office at 307-235-8214 to see if you qualify. Registration and qualification is a requirement for reduced fare.

Deviations must be paid with exact change and are CASH ONLY. Drivers do not carry change.

Deviations must be arranged with the Dispatch Office at 307-235-8287 1 hour in advance.

Deviations can be rejected at any time at the dispatch office or at the driver’s discretion.

Rejections are rare and generally occur due to time constraints, weather conditions, construction delays, or excessive distance from route.

When a trip requires more than one bus route, passengers can transfer from one route to another. Transfers are free and can only be used for an immediate transfer.

If you cannot make it to one of our designated bus stops you may make use of our door-to-door transport service (ASSIST). This service is provided for seniors, the disabled, or Medicare. Please visit the transit office to register for this service.

Any person who rides on-board a bus operated by the City of Casper Link or ASSIST is deemed to have accepted the normal risks that may be encountered when traveling on board a public vehicle.
