The War of 1812

Why did the war start?

June 18, 1812-February 17, 1815

- The British opposed territorial expansion in North America.
- The British support of Native Americans opposed to Colonial settlement in the Northwest Territories.
- The British were not ready to recognize American rights at sea and attacked American vessels on the high seas.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF GREENBUSH CANTONMENT WAR OF 1812

A CANTONMENT IS A MILITARY TRAINING COMPLEX

- The Greenbush Cantonment was the headquarters for the American Army Division of the North. It quartered over 4,000 men.
- PURCHASE: IN 1812, GENERAL DEARBORN OF THE US ARMY, ACTING AS AN AGENT FOR THE US GOVERNMENT, PURCHASED THE LAND FROM STEPHEN VAN RENSSELAER CONSISTING OF 400 ACRES WHERE THE CANTONMENT WOULD BE CONSTRUCTED.
- LOCATION: THE SITE WAS CHOSEN BECAUSE IT WAS ½ WAY BETWEEN NEW YORK CITY AND CANADA AND NEAR THE HUDSON RIVER.

General
Dearborn

- BUILDINGS: THE BUILDINGS CONSISTED OF 8 BARRACKS FOR ENLISTED MEN (252' LONG, 22' WIDE AND 2 STORIES HIGH). THESE WERE ARRANGED 4 ON A SIDE FACING THE PARADE GROUNDS. 3 OFFICERS' QUARTERS (EACH 90' LONG, 22' WIDE AND 2 STORIES HIGH), ARRANGED AT RIGHT ANGLES FACING THE PARADE GROUNDS. RED MILL SCHOOL SITS WHERE THE PARADE GROUNDS WERE. ONLY ONE BUILDING REMAINS...ONE THAT USED TO BE AN OFFICERS' QUARTERS. TO THE NORTH STOOD 2 LARGE COMMISSARY STORE HOUSES AND THE BARRACK MASTER'S HOUSE, TO THE EAST STOOD THE BRICK ARSENAL. ON THE TOP OF THE HILL OVERLOOKING THE WHOLE COMPLEX STOOD THE GENERAL'S QUARTERS ALONG WITH THE HOSPITAL AND SURGEON'S QUARTERS. AROUND THE GROUNDS STOOD SEVERAL SMALLER BUILDINGS SUCH AS THE GUARD HOUSE, COOKING HOUSES, MEDICINE SHOPS AND HORSE STABLES...ALL PAINTED WHITE.

One of the officers quarters is the only remaining building of the Cantonment complex. It is now a well-maintained private residence.

- SAMUEL WILSON: SAMUEL WILSON, A MEAT PACKER FROM TROY DELIVERED FROM TIME TO TIME A SHIPMENT OF BEEF TO THE CANTONMENT AT GREENBUSH, WHERE THE SOLDIERS FROM TROY DESIGNATED IT AS “UNCLE SAM’S” IMPLYING THAT IT WAS FURNISHED BY SAMUEL WILSON, WHO THEY AND OTHER PEOPLE OF THE TROY AREA WERE ACCUSTOMED TO CALLING “UNCLE SAM”. THE OTHER RECRUITS, THINKING THAT THE TERM WAS APPLIED TO THE LETTERS U.S. STAMPED UPON THE BARRELS OF BEEF BY GOVERNMENT INSPECTORS OF THE BEEF, BEGAN USING THE APPELLATION “UNCLE SAM” FIGURATIVELY FOR THE UNITED STATES.
- AFTER THE WAR: WHEN THE WAR OF 1812 ENDED, A FEW TROOPS REMAINED AT GREENBUSH CANTONMENT UNTIL MAY 2, 1831 WHEN THE US GOVERNMENT SOLD THE LAND TO HATHORNE MCCULLOCH. IN 1843 THE LAND WAS DIVIDED INTO 2 PARTS; ONE PART SOLD BY HATHORNE MCCULLOCH TO HIS SON, WILLIAM A. MCCULLOCH, WHO BUILT “HATHORNDEN” WHICH STILL STANDS TODAY. THIS BUILDING WAS MADE FROM MATERIALS FROM THE DEMOLITION OF THE CANTONMENT BUILDINGS. ANOTHER BUILDING BUILT IN GREENBUSH FROM THE DEMOLITION MATERIALS OF THE CANTONMENT WAS THE GREENBUSH AND SCHODACK ACADEMY LOCATED ON WHAT IS NOW COLUMBIA TURNPIKE NEAR WHERE THE HOLY SPIRIT CHURCH IS TODAY. THAT SCHOOL WAS BUILT IN 1831 AND DESTROYED BY FIRE IN 1915.

THE EXECUTION
PVT. SAMUEL HELMS

The background of the slide is a blurred American flag, showing the stars and stripes in a soft, out-of-focus manner.

As you can see by the first- hand account, no names are mentioned. The Commander of the post is stated only as Colonel L.

Upon research of the Greenbush Cantonment, I learned the Commander was Colonel Simon Larned (1753-1817).

I had my first name. Through Fold3.com, I was able to find letters from Colonel Simon Larned to the Adjutant General regarding the court martial held on July 21, 1813, but the executed soldier was not named in any of the letters I found.

What is the difference between desertion and AWOL?

- Desertion: It is true that desertion could result in the convicted offender receiving the death penalty. Although the maximum penalty for desertion during a time of war is death, only one person since the Civil War has ever been executed. Private Eddie Slovik was executed in 1945. The offense of an Article 8 desertion does carry much greater punishment than any AWOL Article 86 charge. Although many people think that if a service member goes absent without permission for more than 30 days the charge will automatically be upgraded to desertion, this is not so.
- Intention Defines Offense: Actually, if a service member had intended to return to military duty and "control" at some point, this person would be tried under Article 86, AWOL, not as a deserter. This is true even if the person remained absent for 20 years or more. However, if a service member went absent without authorization – for even a minute – and then was captured – this person could, indeed face charges of desertion. The prosecutor in such a case must prove the service member intended to stay absent permanently. But, if this service member went on an unauthorized absence to avoid important duty such as a combat deployment, no intent needs to be determined to support desertion charges. But this would not include failure to report for such activity as training, maneuvers, guard duty and other activity since these are not considered "important duty." This term is usually applied to "hazardous" duty like combat deployment or possibly duty on certain naval ships when deployed to a combat zone.

This is an excerpt from the first-hand account of the execution authored by the unknown surgeon. I highlight this portion to show Pvt. Helms' intent to return.

Prompted by feelings of pity, I called next morning to see him in prison. There, chained by the leg to a beam of the guard house, he was reading the Bible, trying to prepare himself, as he said, for the fatal hour. I learned from him the circumstances of his case. He was the father of a family, having a wife and three young children thirty or forty miles from the camp. His crime was desertion, of which he had been three times guilty. His only object in leaving the camp in the last instance was to visit his wife and children. Having seen that all was well with them, it was his intention to return.

Page 550 of the chapter titled The Illegal Execution of a Soldier at Greenbush Cantonment begins

-”My judgment deceives me, and I am badly advised, if the following documents will not support the case of the illegal execution of a soldier, sanctioned by President Madison, after due deliberation, in the face of the constitution and the laws.”
- Following this are the transcriptions of letters regarding the legality of the court martial convened by Colonel Simon Larned of the Greenbush Cantonment.

Letter from the Adjutant General To Colonel Simon Larned Informing of Illegal Court Martial

- Washington, 29th Jan. 1814.
- Sir, I am instructed by the Secretary of War, to inform you, that the proceedings of a court martial held at Greenbush, by your order of the 21st July, 1813, and before which were tried Lieutenants Cobb, Blauvelt and Curtis, are illegal, as you had no authority at that time to initiate general courts martial. I am further directed to say, that you are hereby authorized* to order a general court martial, for the trial of the above named officers, the proceedings of which must be transmitted to the secretary of war for his decision.
- I have the honour to be, Very respectfully, Sir,
- Your obedient servant,
- J. B. WALBACK, Adjutant General.
- « Colonel Simon Larned, Greenbush."

* The authority vesting officers with powers to institute general courts martial, is delegated by law in the 65th article of the rules and articles for the government of the armies of the United States, and is not submitted to the President ; therefore, this authorization was an usurpation.

Excerpts from Colonel Larned's Reply to the Adjutant General, Dated February 9, 1814.

- Sir, " I had the honour to receive your favour of the 29th January by which I am informed the proceedings of the court martial ordered by me in July last, are illegal; a doctrine new to me; and as far as I have erred, it has been in pursuing the practice of my superiors.* While General Chandler was at Burlington, Colonel Pike (afterwards General Pike) at Pittsburgh, each ordered general courts martial, approved or disapproved the sentences, and carried them into execution. General Dearborn at the same time commanded at Greenbush. Some officers above my rank, passed through Albany in the course of the summer, without my knowledge, none giving me any orders. When General Hampton passed through Albany, on his way to the frontiers, he refused to give me orders on any subject. This being a kind of deposit for all sick, invalids, rogues, and deserters, the latter increased upon me to an alarming degree, I appointed general courts martial, approved and disapproved their sentences, and carried them into effect, one man only was shot for repeated desertion, according to the sentence of the court. In all this, I not only conceived I was doing my duty but a service to my country. It seems, however, I misjudged. On receipt of your letter of the 12th, I immediately wrote General Wilkinson by an express, but I received no answer. Our number now in the Provost Guard House for Capital crimes, are about 40 and daily increasing. It is often attended with some difficulty to assemble officers in this vicinity sufficient to form a general court martial.
- * This evinces the danger of precedent and the necessity of nipping it in the bud. General James Wilkinson

...." It would be useless for me to attempt the enumeration of evils, resulting from an unqualified decision, of the illegality of those general courts martial which were ordered by me. Those under sentence must be released; and I left to make my peace with them. " The charge of murder for the one who was shot, would be in active circulation immediately...."

Letter from the Adjutant General Informing Colonel Larned, the President

Decided the Court Martial Was Legal •

- Adjutant Inspector General's Office, Washington, 9th March, 1814.
- Your letter of the 9th February has been received, and submitted to the secretary of war, by whose direction, I inform you, that the President has decided, that ,Greenbush be considered a separate command, so far as relates to courts martial hitherto held. This decision, you will observe, is a confirmation of the several sentences of general courts martial, held under your orders, and will render unnecessary, any further proceedings in the cases of Lieutenants Cobb, Blauvelt and others.
- I am, Sir,
- Your obedient servant,
- J. B. WALBACH, Adjutant General.

- Colonel S. Larned, Commanding. Greenbush, State of New York

The Investigation of the Legality of the Court Martial Continued with a Letter from Major Asa B. Sizer to the Adjutant General.

- Troy, March 2, 1815.
- Sir, In reply to your letter of this date, I have the honour to inform you that I was a member of a general court martial of which Lieutenant-colonel Young was president, ordered at Greenbush by Colonel Larned, in July, 1813, at which Lieutenant Cobb of the light artillery, and Lieutenant Blauvelt of the 13th infantry, were dismissed the service. Lieutenant Curtis of the 15th infantry, suspended for a limited time, and Samuel Helms, a private (of what regiment I do not recollect) sentenced to be shot for desertion, all of which sentences were approved of by the commanding officer, and carried into execution. Not having papers with me by which I can refresh my memory, I am unable to give you the precise dates, but I know the sentences were approved and promulgated immediately after the proceedings were handed over by the judge advocate. Helms was executed in the in latter part of August or the first part of September following. I was officer of the day, and superintended his execution. By the same court many other soldiers were tried and sentenced to various punishments, but my recollection is not sufficient to enable me to particularize them.
- I have the honour to be, Sir,
- Your most obedient servant,
- ASA B. SIZER, Major, 29th Infantry.
- General Wilkinson." The facts are before the people, who will decide on their merits, and if Lieutenants Cobb and Blauvelt were not illegally dishonored, and the life of Samuel Helms unlawfully taken, then I shall acknowledge my error, and make every reparation to the accused.

PVT. SAMUEL HELMS

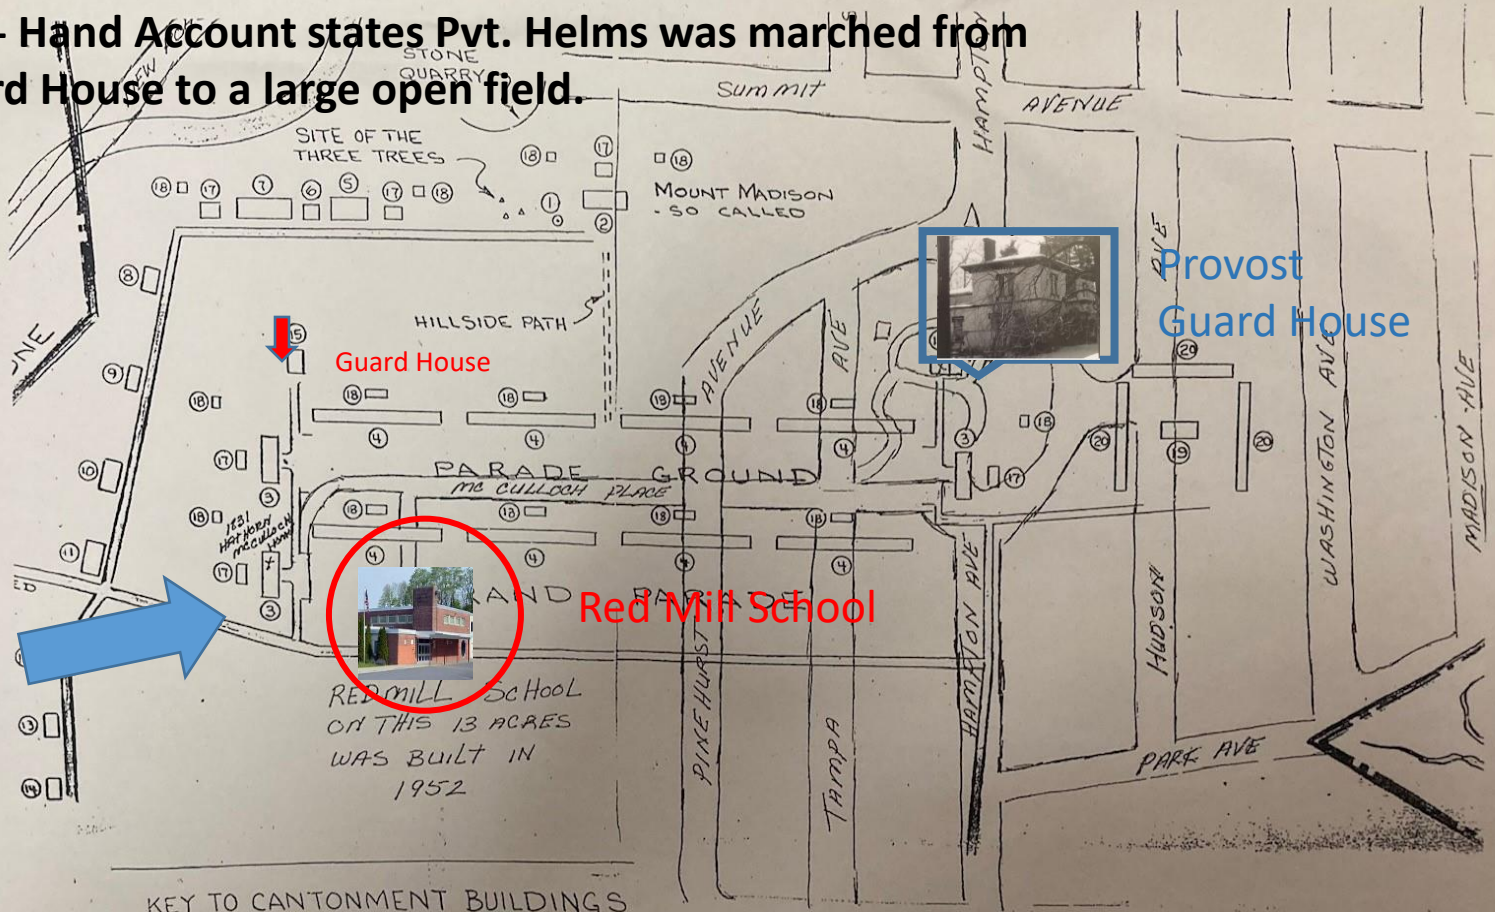

FROM MY RESEARCH I HAVE FOUND VERY LITTLE RECORDS OF PVT. SAMUEL HELMS SUCH AS HIS ENLISTMENT OR OF THE COURT MARTIAL TRANSCRIPT OF HIS TRIAL, IF IT EVER EXISTED. I DO KNOW HE WAS WITH THE NEW YORK MILITIA, UNDER VAN BEUREN IN CAPTAIN JOSEPH DELAFIELD'S COMPANY, 1 REGIMENT MILITIA IN ULSTER COUNTY, NEW YORK.

I AM OF THE OPINION HE WAS BROUGHT TO GREENBUSH CANTONMENT UNDER ARREST FROM WHERE HE WAS STATIONED IN ULSTER COUNTY, PLACED FIRST IN THE PROVOST GUARD HOUSE AND TRIED FOR THE CHARGE OF DESERTION. AT THE TIME OF HIS EXECUTION, HE WAS TAKEN FROM THE CAMP GUARD HOUSE TO THE LARGE FIELD BEHIND WHERE RED MILL SCHOOL ATHLETIC FIELD IS NOW AND EXECUTED.

The First- Hand Account states Pvt. Helms was marched from The Guard House to a large open field.

- On December 23, 1829, a report by Mr. Drayton, from the Committee on Military Affairs stated, in part....."From the foregoing statement, it results, that the only question existing in the memorialist's (Lt. This is the reply I received from Colonel Jeffrey C. Lieb stating I must submit documents such as a Death Certificate, Marriage Certificate, etc. I cannot supply these forms as they did not exist in 1813. Plus next of kin is required for soldiers who cannot file (deceased).

This is basically the same response I have received with each correspondence stating I cannot supply these forms nor have I been able to locate next of kin yet.

Dear Ms. Reno:

This is in response to your application to the Army Board for Correction of Military Records (ABCMR), dated March 10, 2015, wherein you request a correction to a military record on behalf of a service member.

Title 10 U.S. Code § 1552, requires each applicant to sign their application unless that individual is deceased or determined by proper medical authority to be incompetent. In either case, proper proof must accompany the application. This proof consists of birth, death, or marriage certificate showing relationship to the military member or a power of attorney from the service member to the individual signing the application. In your case, this documentation was not included with your application.

Ms. Reno, our agency understands you are a historian, and it is very difficult to locate a living relative for a service member that served hundreds of years ago. We appreciate the hard work, research, and dedication you have done. Please note, there is legislative proposal currently with Congress to amend Title 10 U.S. Code § 1552 to allow exceptions to the rule above; however, this legislation is in the early consideration phase.

In view of the foregoing, your application is returned without action and without prejudice.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey C. Lieb

Bill HR 6308

Introduced by Rep. Paul Tonko in the United States House of Representatives July 3, 2018

Referred to the House Committee on Armed Services before the Sub-committee on Military Personnel

The Historical Record Exemption Act of 2018

Background

Members of the military sometimes find that their military records may inaccurately represent their service, either due to error or injustice. After the discovery of an alleged error or injustice, individuals or their representatives may seek to correct them. These military record corrections include status changes from dishonorable or other than honorable discharge to honorable discharge. Currently, military records can only be changed either by the individual themselves, someone who has been granted power of attorney, next of kin, or DoD Service Secretaries, who may initiate Board of Correction for Military Records (BCMR) applications.

Unfortunately, this excludes historians and other interested parties that seek to correct historic military records, where next of kin might be difficult or impossible to locate.

For example, in December 2016, the Town Historian of East Greenbush, New York reached out to the Army Review Boards Agency. She had been researching the 1813 court martial and execution of Private Samuel Helms. She believed that Private Helms was wrongfully charged with desertion and therefore was illegally tried. After seeking to correct his military record, she was informed that her request could not be evaluated because she was not related to him. She is unable to track down any living descendant of the soldier who was tried over 200 years ago.

1. Even when a living descendant can be identified, it can be extremely difficult, and often impossible, to provide the necessary documentation to make changes to historic military records. Surviving family must prove their relationship to the service member through documentation such as birth, marriage, and death certificates. Unfortunately, many of these forms of legal proof did not exist 175 years ago.

What will the bill do?

The Historical Record Exemption Act of 2018 would allow the Secretary of the military department concerned or a person the Secretary concerned determines has a vested interest in the military record file a request for the correction more than 175 years after the date of the creation of the military record.

Text of HR 6308

- H. R. 6308
- To authorize the Secretary of a military department to correct a military record at the request of an interested party more than 175 years after the date of the creation of the military record, and for other purposes.
- IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
- July 3, 2018
- Mr. Tonko introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Armed Services
- A BILL
- To authorize the Secretary of a military department to correct a military record at the request of an interested party more than 175 years after the date of the creation of the military record, and for other purposes.
- Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
- SECTION 1. Short title.
- This Act may be cited as the “Historical Record Exemption Act of 2018”.
- SEC. 2. Correction of historical military records.
- Section 1552(b) of title 10, United States Code, is amended—
- (1) by striking “No” and inserting “(1) Subject to paragraph (2), no”; and
- (2) by adding at the end the following new paragraph:
- “(2) A correction may be made under subsection (a)(1) if the Secretary concerned or a person the Secretary concerned determines has a vested interest in the military record files a request for the correction more than 175 years after the date of the creation of the military record.”.
- UPDATE: The Bill died in Committee.

The Honorable Kathy Hochul
Governor of New York State
Executive Chambers
New York State Capitol Building
Albany, New York 12224

Dear Governor Hochul:

For 12 years now I have been researching and petitioning for justice for a soldier wrongfully charged with desertion and executed at Greenbush Cantonment during the War of 1812.

My research has provided proof the soldier, Pvt. Samuel Helms was AWOL not a deserter. In my enclosed research documents, you will see his Muster Roll where he had returned to duty. In the first-hand account of Pvt. Helms' execution, Pvt. Helms stated it was his intent to return to camp after seeing to the well being of his wife and three small children. United States Military Law states the difference between desertion and AWOL is intent. Did the soldier intend to stay away from active duty permanently or did the soldier intend to return to active duty? This does not apply to leaving important duty such as a battle field. Pvt. Samuel Helms left a camp, not important duty and he had returned twice before. I have enclosed extensive documents to support my proof of the wrongful charge of desertion and the illegal court martial and execution of Pvt. Samuel Helms.

I have made application to the United States Army Board of Review to have desertion cleared from Pvt. Samuel Helms record. Unfortunately, the Army Board of Review requires documents I cannot present; such as a Death Certificate, Marriage Certificate or Power of Attorney signed by the soldier as these documents did not exist in 1813 when Pvt. Helms was executed. Rep. Paul Tonko introduced bill H. R. 6308 "Historical Record Exemption Act of 2018" (see copies enclosed) that would allow the filing of an application where the required forms are exempted due to age of the event. The bill died in Committee.

It would appear that the only hope for justice for Pvt. Samuel Helms is for you, Governor Hochul, as the Commander in Chief of the New York State Militia, to review the documents enclosed and consider granting Pvt. Samuel Helms a pardon.

Thank you for your consideration of my request. What happened to Pvt. Samuel Helms then was wrong....it is still wrong today. In my opinion, justice needs to prevail, without time limits, in order for justice to survive.

Sincerely,

Roberta "Bobbie" Reno,
Historian

From Capital Region GPR

Conclusion:

It appears there are several disturbances under the soil in the field area in line with possible burials of bodies. More archaeological exploration is needed to determine these findings. The areas are in the original section scanned in February, and Sections 2, 5, 13, 14, 18b, 24 and 26 scanned in April and June of 2023 as noted above with GPR scans and photos.

It does appear there is more than one body buried in the field, including in our Section 2, where two possible bodies are buried relatively next to each other.

It appears there is no evidence of bodies buried under the wood-chipped playground area. Previous excavation appears to be at least six feet deep in building the playground.

It appears there is no evidence of burials in the grassy area adjacent south of the playground to the southern school property border. It appears there is some sort of debris from previous projects buried in this area.

It appears there is former dirt roadway

Officer's Quarters on private property and the northern asphalt roadway of the school. The dirt road is believed to be running on a slight angle across the approximate middle of the former tennis court. The roadway is approximately 41 feet from the southwest corner of the asphalt of the former tennis court, and is about 21 feet wide.

evidence of a between the former

It does appear there is evidence of unknown pipes as noted above. It is unknown if the pipes are live, abandoned or decommissioned. It is unknown if they are drainage, sewer, water, gas or buried electric lines.

Dear Ms. Reno:

I am responding on behalf of the Secretary of the Army to your letter dated May 21, 2024, regarding the death and burial of Private Helms. Your continued passion for ensuring the proper commemoration for Private Helms is commendable.

The Army has no current authority or jurisdiction for the remains supposedly buried on a New York municipality property. We can acknowledge that the situation is certainly unfortunate but it is not in our authority to authorize your request. All work in this matter is under the purview of the New York State Historic Preservation Office (SHPO). You should work with the New York SHPO on this matter moving forward.

My point of contact for this issue is Ms. Renea Yates, Director of Office Army Cemeteries at (703.614.1248) or renea.c.yates.civ@army.mil. Thank you for your dedication to the memory of Private Helms.
