

ELKO COUNTY JUSTICE & MUNICIPAL COURTS

UNIFIED BAIL SCHEDULE

Unless otherwise specified herein or set forth in NRS 178.484 or other law governing bail, interim bail¹ shall be set for each alleged criminal offense according to the following schedule:

FELONY AND GROSS MISDEMEANOR OFFENSES

Category A (Open Murder).....	-NO BAIL-
(Other NRS 200.030 & All NRS 200.366 Crimes)	$500,000
(All Other Category A Felonies).....	$250,000
Category B.....	$100,000
Category C.....	$50,000
Category D.....	$15,000
Category E.....	$10,000
Gross Misdemeanor	$5,000

MISDEMEANOR OFFENSES

Domestic Violence 2 nd	$5,140
Domestic Violence 1 st	$3,140
Protection Order Violation 1 st	$3,140
DUI 2 nd	$1,140
Children/Elderly/Vulnerable Person Crimes.....	$1,140
Stalking & Harassment.....	$1,140
Animal Abuse/Neglect	$1,140
Vehicular Manslaughter.....	$1,140
Driving DUI Revoked/Interlock Violation	$1,140
No Vehicle Insurance.....	$740

Unless otherwise specified above or set forth in NRS 178.484 or other law governing bail, interim bail for all other misdemeanor offenses shall be set according to the categorization of the alleged crime as a “Serious”² Misdemeanor or a “Less Serious”³ Misdemeanor.

Serious Misdemeanor.....	$640
Less Serious Misdemeanor	$355

¹ “Interim bail” is the monetary bail amount set at the time of the issuance of a Warrant of Arrest or the time a Defendant is taken into custody on a warrantless arrest, as applicable. Interim bail is superseded by an individualized determination made by a judicial officer, such as those made following NRS 178.4849 Pretrial Release Hearings.

² “Serious” Misdemeanors are those not otherwise specified herein which are assigned a NOC (Nevada Offense Code) deemed “Retainable” by the Department of Public Safety.

³ “Less Serious” Misdemeanors are those not otherwise specified herein which are assigned a NOC (Nevada Offense Code) deemed “Non-Retainable” by the Department of Public Safety.