

2022 FAIRBORN POLICE Annual Report

Fairborn Police Department

Letter of Introduction to the Citizens of Fairborn

To the Citizens of Fairborn:

It is my pleasure to present to you the Fairborn Police Department's 2022 Annual Report. The men and women of our organization are continually striving to complete the mission of the organization.

It is my hope that the information provided in this report will provide valuable insight into the day-to-day operations of the police department and the high-quality service provided by our staff.

2022 has been a year of change within the Fairborn Police Department with several veteran officers retiring and new officers beginning their careers. Change is inevitable, but with change comes fresh ideas. As I will be stepping away in 2023, I am confident that the right people are in place to lead the organization into the future. Rest assured that the men and women of the Fairborn Police Department will continue to provide the quality service that the citizens have come to expect.

It has been my honor to serve the citizens of Fairborn for almost 35 years and to work alongside the members of city staff and the officers of the Fairborn Police Department, past and present.

Your comments or suggestions on how the department can better serve you are welcome. You may reach the administration department at (937) 754-3067 or by e-mail at fairbornpolice@fairbornoh.gov.

Sincerely,

Operations Captain

Captain Steve Holcomb is a 27-year veteran with the Fairborn Police Department, beginning his career on January 6, 1996. He has been serving in the capacity of Captain since December of 2017.

Administrative Captain

Captain Ben Roman is an 18-year veteran with the Fairborn Police Department, beginning his career on May 3, 2004. He has been serving in the capacity of Captain since December of 2020.

Fairborn Police Department Accomplishments for 2022:

- The department provided/allowed for the training of personnel in the amount of 6,322 hours in 2022. The training of personnel is essential in providing the most qualified and competent individuals to serve the citizens of the community. It also provides a defense for liability claims against the city.
- The Fairborn Police Department once again, earned the Ohio Collaborative Certification by meeting the standards identified by the Ohio Collaborative Community-Police Advisory Board. The certification addresses ways to strengthen police and community relations.
- Completed the transition to a Lexipol Policy platform to standardize policy and procedures and align with national and state standards.

Chief of Police

The Chief of Police is responsible for multiple duties within the police department. One of the primary duties is the administration of the department's $12.9 million-dollar annual budget. The Chief is responsible for the hiring of personnel, training of personnel, and the certification and management of all personnel assigned to the department. The Chief is also responsible for coordinating the purchase and replacement of all supplies and equipment used daily.

Administrative Assistant to Chief of Police

Lori Bowen is the office assistant to the Chief of Police. In addition to clerical support to the Chief, Lori also provides clerical support to the Administrative, Operations and Support Captains, Administrative Sergeants and Detective Section. Lori plays a vital role in preparing budget requisitions, departmental phone support, spreadsheet report and additional duties as required. Lori is also instrumental regarding the input of data into the records management system.

R.E.R.T. (Regional Emergency Response Team)

The Fairborn Police Department is a member of the Regional Emergency Response Team (RERT), a regional team comprised of members from the jurisdictions of Fairborn, Beavercreek, and Huber Heights. Officers on the team are trained in specialized tactics and crisis negotiations. The team trains monthly as a complete unit to stay current on the latest techniques and training methods. Additionally, the precision marksmen train on a quarterly basis. The purpose of the team is to assist member agencies with critical incidents that are better and more safely resolved by officers with specialized training in tactics and negotiations.

In 2022, RERT personnel received training in the following areas:

Weapons flow, defensive tactics, team movement, downed officer simulation, first aid, search warrant service, hostage rescues, vehicle assaults, stress shooting, range qualifications, special munitions, live fire shoot house scenarios and woodland environments.

The Regional Emergency Response Team continues to be a valuable resource for all the jurisdictions involved.

The Administrative Bureau

Captain Ben Roman oversees the Administrative Bureau. He is the designated jail administrator for the Fairborn City Jail. He directly supervises the Administrative Sergeant, and the departmental IT staff. Captain Roman handles departmental research and development, grant management, personnel recruitment and hiring, equipment purchases, fleet management, coordination of all departmental training, ensures the meeting/maintaining of Ohio Collaborative Standards, and addresses any building facility issues that may arise.

Administrative Sergeant - The day-to-day jail administration duties are under the immediate supervision of Administrative Sergeant Nathan Penrod. Sergeant Penrod is a 16-year veteran with the Fairborn Police Department. Sergeant Penrod oversees jail and dispatch scheduling, day to day operation of the jail and dispatch center, alarm permits, and assist with recruitment and hiring.

IT Staff – The Fairborn Police Department IT services are completed by Fairborn Police Officer Steve Bertles and IT Technician Thai Do.

Ohio Collaborative

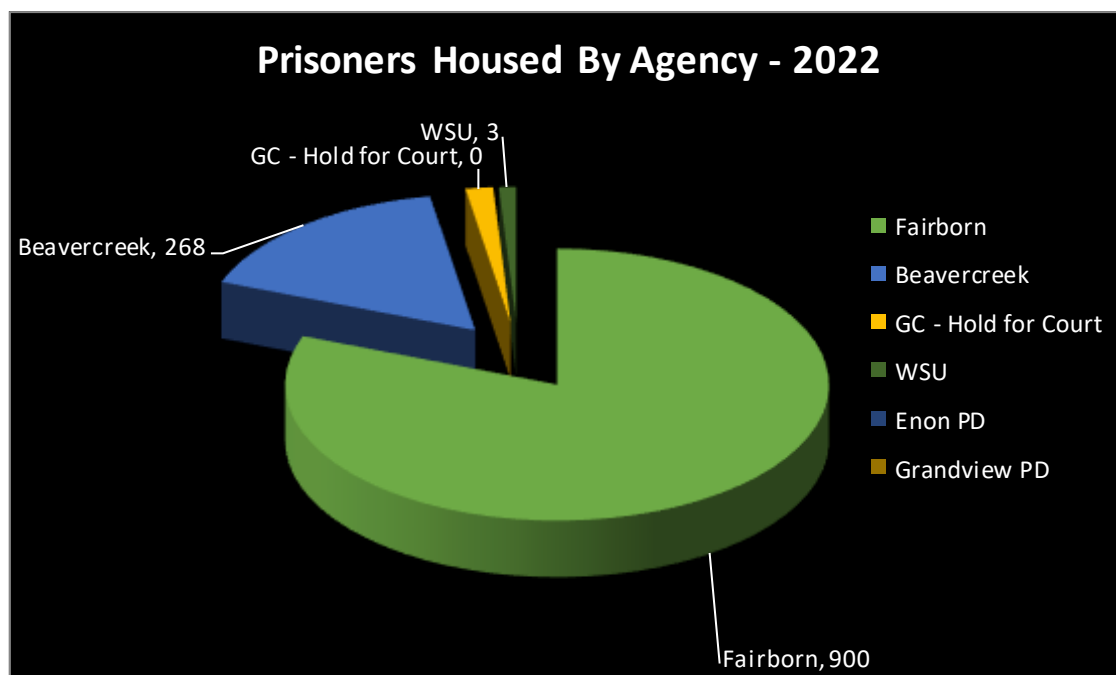

In 2022, the Fairborn Police Department again earned an Ohio Collaborative certification by meeting the standards identified by the OCJS - Ohio Collaborative Board. The certification addresses ways to strengthen police and community relations. Compliance standards included the following topics/areas:

- Use of Force
- Recruitment/Hiring
- Community Engagement
- Telecommunicator Training
- Bias Free Policing
- Investigations of Employee Misconduct
- Vehicle Pursuits
- Response to Mass Protests
- Agency Wellness
- Body Worn Cameras

Fairborn City Jail

The Fairborn City Jail is classified as a 12-day jail as defined by the Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Correction. The jail is inspected annually for various area of compliance. In 2022, the Fairborn City Jail was again recognized for being in full compliance with the mandated standards for jails in Ohio.

Inmates were primarily confined to await trial or arraignment in the Fairborn Municipal Court. The jail also acts as an intake facility for initial arrests by Fairborn Police, Beavercreek Police, Wright State University, Grandview Medical Center, the Village of Enon and other regional law enforcement agencies in need of housing prisoners for the Fairborn Municipal Court.

Total Prisoners Housed – 1,171

Court/Prisoner Transports – 339

The Operations Bureau

The Operations Bureau consists of the Patrol Section, the Records Department, the K9 program, the DARE/SRO program, the Citizen Patrol program, Special Events, Contract overtime and the UAS program. Steve Holcomb is the Operations Captain and John McGuire is the Operations Sergeant. The following sergeants are assigned to the Operations Bureau: James Hern, Ross Ferree, Cara Foreman and Matt Sortman. Each of these sergeants supervises a platoon of patrol officers.

Patrol Sergeants and Officers

Each patrol sergeant supervises a platoon of patrol officers in their daily assignments and functions. The patrol sergeant reviews all cases submitted by the officers on their platoon and assigns misdemeanor cases that require further investigation to the primary submitting officer. The patrol officers are assigned to patrol duties throughout the City of Fairborn. Their primary duties include the protection of life and property through the enforcement of laws and ordinances. The functions performed by patrol officers include conducting neighborhood and business patrols designed to detect and deter crime, arresting violators, locating suspicious activity in their assigned areas and taking appropriate action as necessary. Patrol officers respond to crime scenes, motor vehicle crashes and complete criminal and non-criminal investigations. Some other patrol duties include rendering first aid when necessary, directing traffic, speaking with witnesses, interviewing suspects, making court appearances, maintaining order, and assisting other law enforcement agencies when requested.

Operations Sergeant

The Operations Sergeant is the department's assigned public information officer and liaison for all follow up inquiries made by the media. The Operations Sergeant oversees the citizen patrol program, the ride along program and the citizen's police academy class. Sgt. McGuire assists with special event planning, scheduling, contract overtime, overtime postings and timesheets. He also completes numerous bi-weekly and monthly reports. In addition, the Operations Sergeant oversaw the Fairborn Police Department's 2022 certification with Ohio Collaborative by meeting the standards identified by the OCJS - Ohio Collaborative Board. The certification addresses ways to strengthen police and community relations and sets standards for agencies to follow regarding policy/procedure, knowledge and awareness, proficiency and compliance.

Fairborn Police Department's K-9 Officers

Officer Joe Pence was hired by the Fairborn Police Department in April of 2006. Ofc. Pence has been involved in many areas of the department and previously served 8 years with the Regional Emergency Response Team (R.E.R.T.).

Ofc. Pence currently serves on the departments Honor Guard, the Critical Incident Stress Management (CISM) team, and as a K9 handler.

Ofc. Pence was partnered with Canine Bacardi (Bac), a Belgian Malinois, in November of 2015. Ofc. Pence and Bac are trained to locate drugs, track, and apprehend suspects and locate discarded evidence. Along with finding criminal suspects, Ofc. Pence and Bac have also successfully assisted in locating missing children and Endangered adults.

Due to age and health issues Bac retired in September of 2022 at which time Ofc. Pence returned to the patrol section.

Officer Rodney Myers was hired by the Fairborn Police Department in February of 1990 after having served as a Corrections Officer for MCSO from 1988-1990. He became a Detective in Sept. of 1996 and was then promoted to Sergeant in October of 1998. In July of 2012, he was appointed supervisor in charge of Investigations and served in that capacity for two years. Ofc. Myers was appointed to the position of K-9 Officer and partnered with Niko, a German Shepherd, in April of 2017. During his career, he served on the RERT for over twenty years and was one of the original members of that unit and held the positions of rifle sharpshooter, general operator, and team leader.

Ofc. Myers has been a Technical Crash Investigator for most of his career. He has also received instructor certification and trained officers from the FPD and other agencies in Standardized Field Sobriety Testing and Electronic Speed Measurement Devices (RADAR/LIDAR).

Officer Myers and K-9 Niko retired in July of 2022.

Officer Jared Bond was hired by the Fairborn Police Department in April of 2016. Ofc. Bond served approximately 3 years with the Regional Emergency Response Team (R.E.R.T.) prior to being moved to the K9 handler position.

Officer Bond was partnered with Canine Pit, a German Shepherd, in June of 2022. Ofc. Bond and Pit are trained to locate drugs, track, apprehend suspects and locate discarded evidence. Along with finding criminal suspects, Ofc. Bond and Pit can be used to help locate missing children and endangered adults.

Fairborn Police Department's School Resource Officers

The Fairborn Police Department's School Resource Officers are dedicated to patrolling school grounds, teaching, and providing security for all schools within the City of Fairborn. There are departmental substations in all Fairborn City School buildings that provide officers with a workspace to complete investigations. Fairborn SRO's provide staff members of Fairborn City Schools with training in various facets of school safety throughout the school year as well as updates to the nationally recognized ALICE program. Fairborn SRO's actively maintain social media sites allowing additional avenues of approach for students and parents.

Officer Austin Salzer

School Resource Officer (SRO) – Fairborn High School

Officer Jon Matheny

SRO/ DARE Officer – Fairborn Primary and Fairborn Intermediate

Officer Kyle Blocher

School Resource Officer (SRO) – Baker Middle School

Records Bureau

The Records Bureau consists of two (2) employees, Records Clerks - Ingrid Freeman and Kendra Malcolm.

Responsibilities of the Records Bureau include:

- Monthly submission to Ohio Incident Based Reporting System
- Monthly preparation of the departmental statistics
- Classification of reports and compiling statistics
- Ordering of office supplies for the Police Department
- Checking of criminal records and searches
- Maintaining the tow file and obtaining vehicle titles for junk or abandoned vehicles for towing agencies.

Support Services Bureau

The Support Services Bureau, which consists of the Detective section, Communications, Internal Affairs, N.E.T Officers, and the Property Room, is overseen by Captain Dan Arwood. The Bureau Captain is responsible for Communications, criminal intelligence, and crime analysis.

Detective Sergeant

Sergeant Mark Stannard oversees the day-to-day operations of the detective section. He reviews cases and assigns felony cases to the detectives, he handles nuisance abatement cases, conducts internal affairs investigations as assigned by the Chief of Police, and oversees the day-to-day operations of the property room.

Detective Section

The detective section is comprised of four detectives, a domestic violence detective, an ACE Task Force detective and a rotational detective. The detective section investigates felony cases. Cases are directly assigned to individual detectives. The assigned detective completes the investigation on the assigned cases including interviews, supplemental reports, search warrants, arrest warrants, summons, Grand Jury presentations, motions to suppress, pre-trials and trials.

Fairborn Detectives filed 199 felony indictments in the Greene County Common Pleas Court in 2022. This total accounts for over 33% of all felony indictments issued by the Greene County Common Pleas Court.

The Detective Section holds membership in the following intelligence sharing associations: Middle Atlantic-Great Lakes Organized Crime Law Enforcement Network (MAGLOCLN), SOFIA, ICAC, CAGE, American Polygraph Association and the Greene County Intelligence Forum. Membership in these organizations enables the Police Department to exchange information that assists in solving cases. Membership also enables the department to have access to sophisticated investigative equipment that the department would not be able to afford on its own.

Greene County Agencies for Combined Enforcement (A.C.E.)

The Greene County Drug Task Force was established in 1986. In 2000, the name was changed to the Agencies for Combined Enforcement (A.C.E.). The unit is currently supervised by Dennis Eng, who retired from the FBI. The Board consists of the Chiefs of Police from Beavercreek, Fairborn, and Xenia, as well as the Greene County Sheriff and the Greene County Prosecutor.

Neighborhood Enhancement Team (N.E.T.)

N.E.T. is comprised of two officers who focus on decreasing all aspects of illegal drug use in the City of Fairborn. Their approach to addressing this includes community policing, increased patrols in problem areas within the city and staying in contact with local apartment management and community stakeholders. They also work with TCN as part of a Quick Response Team (QRT). The main goal of QRT is to make contact with subjects who are dependent on drugs and alcohol to offer them resources and treatment options.

9-1-1 Emergency Services

In 2022, the Fairborn Dispatch Center handled 89,579 inbound and outbound telephone calls. Of those calls, 13,553 were handled by the 9-1-1 emergency phone system, which equates to 15.13% of the total call volume handled by the Dispatch Center. All non-emergency calls are handled on non-emergency telephone lines.

The Emergency Call Works Next Generation 9-1-1 system allows for the text to 9-1-1 messages to be received in dispatch. In 2022, the department received 45 text to 9-1-1 contacts.

Property Room

The following is a list of accomplishments for the property room for the year 2022.

- Completed two inventory reductions of the property room bins involving the disposition of 1778 items of which 10 items were turned over to the City of Fairborn.
- Continued the matching of reported stolen bicycles with the found property and returned 2 stolen bikes to the owners.
- Received 2056 entries of items booked into the property room.
- 1848 entries of evidence were booked into the property room.
- 176 entries booked into safekeeping/found category.
- Processed 40660 case photos.
- Continued attaching case photos to their incident number for viewing.
- Continued an archived case photo folder for quicker viewing of older photos by officers.
- Gathered information and photographed seized items to be sold on the Gov Deals auction site.
- Participated in 2 countywide community drug-drop-off events.
- Continued to learn updated procedures for the submission of evidence to the crime lab and forwarded the information to detectives and patrol.
