2020 FAIRBORN POLICE Annual Report

Fairborn Police Department

Letter of Introduction to the Citizens of Fairborn

To the Citizens of Fairborn:

It is my pleasure to present to you the Fairborn Police Department's 2020 Annual Report. The men and women of our organization are continually striving to complete the mission of the organization.

It is my hope that the information provided in this report will provide valuable insight into the day to day operations of the police department and the high quality service provided by our staff.

This year has been a challenge for the men and women of the department as well as for members of the community. Regardless of the future challenges we face, rest assured the men and women of the Fairborn Police Department will continue to provide the best possible service with the staffing, and resources afforded to us.

Your comments or suggestions on how the department can better serve you are welcome. You may reach the administration department at (937) 754-3067 or by e-mail at fairbornpolice@fairbornoh.gov.

Sincerely,

Terry L. Bennington
Chief of Police

Fairborn Police Department Command Staff

Chief of Police

Chief Terry Bennington is a 32-year veteran with the Fairborn Police Department, beginning his career on September 12, 1988. He has been serving in the capacity of Chief since March of 2020.

Operations Captain

Captain Dan Arwood is a 27-year veteran with the Fairborn Police Department, beginning his career on December 27, 1993. He has been serving in the capacity of Captain since August of 2012

Administrative Captain

Captain Steve Holcomb is a 25-year veteran with the Fairborn Police Department, beginning his career on January 6, 1996. He has been serving in the capacity of Captain since December of 2017.

Fairborn Police Department Accomplishments for 2020:

- The department provided/allowed for the training of personnel in the amount of 4,469 hours in 2020. The number of training hours was down compared to previous years due to the cancellation of many outside classes. The training of personnel is essential in providing the most qualified and competent individuals to serve the citizens of the community. It also provides a defense for liability claims against the city.

- The Fairborn Police Department once again, earned the Ohio Collaborative Certification by meeting the standards identified by the Ohio Collaborative Community-Police Advisory Board. The certification addresses ways to strengthen police and community relations.

Chief of Police

The Chief of Police is responsible for multiple duties within the police department. One of the primary duties is the administration of the department's $10.4 million dollar annual budget. The Chief is responsible for the hiring of personnel, training of personnel, and the certification and management of all personnel assigned to the department. The Chief is also responsible for coordinating the purchase and replacement of all supplies and equipment used on a daily basis.

Administrative Assistant to Chief of Police

Lori Bowen is the office assistant to the Chief of Police. In addition to clerical support to the Chief, Lori also provides clerical support to the Administrative, Operations and Support Captains, Administrative Sergeants and Detective Section. Lori plays a vital role in preparing budget requisitions, departmental phone support, spreadsheet report and additional duties as required. Lori is also instrumental regarding the input of data into the records management system.

R.E.R.T. (Regional Emergency Response Team)

The Fairborn Police Department is a member of the Regional Emergency Response Team (RERT), a regional team comprised of members from the jurisdictions of Fairborn, Beavercreek, and Huber Heights. Officers on the team are trained in specialized tactics and crisis negotiations. The team trains monthly as a complete unit to stay current on the latest techniques and training methods.   Additionally, the precision marksmen train on a quarterly basis. The purpose of the team is to assist member agencies with critical incidents that are better and more safely resolved by officers with specialized training in tactics and negotiations.

In 2020, RERT personnel received training in the following areas:

Weapons flow, defensive tactics, team movement, downed officer simulation, first aid, search warrant service, hostage rescues, vehicle assaults, stress shooting, range qualifications, special munitions, live fire shoot house scenarios and woodland environments.

The Regional Emergency Response Team continues to be a valuable resource for all of the jurisdictions involved.

The Administrative Bureau

Captain Steve Holcomb is in charge of the Administrative Bureau. He is the designated jail administrator for the Fairborn City Jail. He directly supervises the Administrative Sergeant, Dispatch, Records and the departmental IT staff. Captain Holcomb handles departmental research and development, grant management, personnel recruitment and hiring, equipment purchases, fleet management, coordination of all departmental training, ensures the meeting/maintaining of Ohio Collaborative Standards, and addresses any building facility issues that may arise.

Administrative Sergeant - The day-to-day jail administration duties are under the immediate supervision of Administrative Sergeant Willard Watts.

IT Staff – The Fairborn Police Department IT services are completed by Fairborn Police Officer Steve Bertles and IT Technician James Fisher.

The Operations Bureau

The Operations Bureau consists of the Patrol Section, the Records Department, the K9 program, the DARE/SRO program and the UAS program. Dan Arwood is the Operations Captain and Ben Roman serves as the Operations Sergeant. The following sergeants are assigned to the Operations Bureau: Gary Mader, Bill Titley, Nate Penrod and John McGuire. Each of these sergeants supervises a platoon of patrol officers.

Patrol Sergeants and Officers

Each patrol sergeant supervises a platoon of patrol officers in their daily assignments and functions. The patrol sergeant reviews all cases submitted by the officers on their platoon and assigns misdemeanor cases that require further investigation back to the primary submitting officer. The patrol officers are, generally assigned to patrol duties throughout the City of Fairborn. Their primary duties include the protection of life and property through the enforcement of laws and ordinances. The functions performed by patrol officers include conducting neighborhood and business patrols designed to detect and deter crime, arresting violators, locating suspicious activity in their assigned areas and taking appropriate action as necessary. Patrol officers respond to crime scenes, motor vehicle crashes and complete criminal and non-criminal investigations. Some other patrol duties include rendering first aid when necessary, directing traffic, speaking with witnesses, interviewing suspects, making court appearances, maintaining order and assisting other law enforcement agencies when requested.

Operations Sergeant

The operations sergeant is the department's assigned public information officer and liaison for all follow up inquiries made by the media. The operations sergeant oversees the volunteer program, the ride along program, the citizen's police academy class, special event planning and numerous other patrol related duties.

Fairborn Police Department's School Resource Officers

The Fairborn Police Department's School Resource Officers are dedicated to patrolling school grounds, teaching and providing security for all schools within the City of Fairborn. There are departmental substations in all Fairborn City School buildings that provide officers with a workspace to complete investigations. Fairborn SRO's provide staff members of Fairborn City Schools with training in various facets of school safety throughout the school year as well as updates to the nationally recognized ALICE program. Fairborn SRO's actively maintain social media sites allowing additional avenues of approach for students and parents.

School Resource Officer (SRO) – Fairborn High School

Officer Tyler McCarty started his career in law enforcement with the City of Springfield in 2009. Officer McCarty joined the City of Fairborn Police Department in 2017. Since that time, he has been assigned to the patrol division and as the department's SRO at Fairborn High School. Officer McCarty teaches an Intro to Law Enforcement class to the students at the high school. The Intro to Law Enforcement class is geared towards students that may have a desire to enter into a law enforcement career. It also gives students a better understanding of the best practices used today in American Law Enforcement. Officer McCarty also presents lessons on opioids, and the dangers associated with them. Officer McCarty is an Ohio School Resource Officer, Rape - Aggression Defense Systems (R.A.D.S.) Instructor, and has attended various Active Shooter preparations for schools and businesses. Officer McCarty has attended other various trainings for mental health and investigations. Officer McCarty has assisted with many student conflicts and behavioral issues that were successfully resolved, mediated, and/or investigated throughout the district. These resolutions ranged from counseling, referrals to other agencies, and occasionally criminal charges. Officer McCarty serves as a role model to the students, and as an upstanding representative for the City of Fairborn, Fairborn Police Department, and the Fairborn City School District. Officer McCarty has formed relationships with staff, students, and their families. Officer McCarty continues to work hard building bonds between law enforcement and the community.

SRO/ DARE Officer – Fairborn Primary and Fairborn Intermediate School and the Fairborn Digital Academy

Officer Zachary Zink has been employed by the City of Fairborn Police Department since 2015. Since that time, he has been assigned to the patrol division and as the department's DARE/SRO Officer for the Fairborn Intermediate School and the Fairborn Primary School. Officer Zink is currently a member of the RERT (SWAT). Officer Zink is a certified D.A.R.E instructor and teaches DARE to all fifth grade students in Fairborn. The DARE program provides students with the skills necessary to recognize and resist pressures to experiment with drugs and to avoid gangs and violence. The lessons emphasize self-esteem, decision making, interpersonal communications skills, and the consequences of drug abuse, conflict resolution, and positive alternatives to substance abuse. Officer Zink and selected DARE students of Fairborn represent the city at the annual summer DARE Camp. This camp consists of top students from all Greene County Law Enforcement jurisdictions and their DARE Officer. Officer Zink was certified in the DARE Curriculum in December of 2017.

Officer Zink is certified in ALICE training and other Active Shooter preparations for schools and businesses. Officer Zink is a certified RADS Training Instructor, which is a self-defense course. All these topics, as well as many others, are offered to the Fairborn Community for extended community outreach education. Officer Zink has completed courses in both adult and juvenile mental health/crisis intervention training.

Officer Zink has assisted with numerous student conflicts and behavioral issues that were successfully mediated, investigated, and resolved at all levels of the district. Resolutions ranged from the counseling of involved parties to referrals to other agencies within Greene County.

Officer Zink serves as a role model to students guiding them in his day-to-day interactions. He also counsels students, either one-on-one or as a group on all school and non-school safety topics to include drug prevention education. Officer Zink has formed relationships with students and their families, building strong bonds between law enforcement and the community.

SRO Officer/ Baker Middle School

Officer Wesley Frederick has been employed by the City of Fairborn since 1991. Since that time, he has been assigned to the patrol division, the Greene County Drug Task Force and currently as the department's SRO at Fairborn Baker Middle School. At Baker Middle School, he provides students with the skills necessary to recognize and resist pressures to experiment with drugs and to avoid gangs and violence. The lessons emphasize self-esteem, decision making, interpersonal communications skills, the consequences of drug abuse, conflict resolution, and positive alternatives to substance abuse. Officer Frederick has been certified in ALICE training and other Active Shooter preparations for schools and businesses and has successfully completed the state SRO Training. Officer Frederick presents opioid lessons and dangers of social media to Baker Middle School health classes each school year. He has also conducted Safety City for Fairborn School students during the summer.

During his tenure at Baker Middle School, Officer Frederick has built relationships of trust with the students and staff. This, in turn, has helped him to become a reliable mentor and confidant. This rapport has helped in working to resolve student conflicts as well as to address behavioral issues. Officer Frederick has worked with the school district as well as outside agencies within Greene County to provide resources and support to students and their families. Officer Frederick also works with multiple levels of leadership within the district to mediate, investigate and resolve the opportunities that arise. Officer Frederick works closely with his fellow SRO's and LEO's to foster a positive image of the police department and law enforcement as a whole. The interactions with students and families within the building and the community are reflective of the department and the city. The goal of Officer Frederick and his peers is to guide the students in positive behaviors and responses to provide a healthy learning environment and community.

Records Bureau

The Records Bureau consists of two (2) employees, Records Clerks - Ingrid Freeman and Kendra Malcolm.

Responsibilities of the Records Bureau include:

- Monthly submission to Ohio Incident Based Reporting System
- Monthly preparation of the departmental statistics
- Classification of reports and compiling statistics
- Ordering of office supplies for the Police Department

- Officer Joshua Lightner was also awarded the Drug Interdiction Award for leading the Patrol Bureau in felony drug arrests.

- Officer Zachary Zink was awarded the Community Engagement Award for recognition of outstanding service to the Fairborn community.

- Detective Shaun Pettit was awarded the 2020 Public Safety Employee of the Year (Police).

Support Services Bureau

The Support Services Bureau, which consists of the Detective section, Communications, and the Property Room, is overseen by Captain Dan Arwood. The Bureau Captain is responsible for Communications, criminal intelligence and crime analysis.

Support Services Sergeant

Sergeant Mark Stannard is assigned as the Support Services Sergeant and oversees felony case assignments, nuisance abatements, conducts internal affairs investigations and has oversight over the property room.

The Detective Section

Fairborn Detectives filed 278 felony indictments in Greene County Common Pleas Court during 2020. This total accounts for over 39.2% of all felony indictments issued by the Greene County Common Pleas Court. They also attended numerous pre-trial conferences and weekly grand jury testimony appearances.

The Detective Section holds membership in the following intelligence sharing associations: Middle Atlantic-Great Lakes Organized Crime Law Enforcement Network (MAGLOCLEN), SOFIA, ICAC, CAGE, American Polygraph Association and the Greene County Intelligence Forum. Membership in these organizations enables the Police Department to exchange information that assists in solving cases. Membership also enables the department to have access to sophisticated investigative equipment that the department would not be able to afford on its own.

Greene County Agencies for Combined Enforcement (A.C.E.)

The Greene County Drug Task Force was established in 1986. In 2000, the name was changed to the Agencies for Combined Enforcement (A.C.E.). The unit is currently supervised by Scott Anger, a retired Xenia Police Captain. The Board consists of the Chiefs of Police from Beavercreek, Fairborn, and Xenia, as well as the Greene County Sheriff and the Greene County Prosecutor.

9-1-1 Emergency Services

In 2020, the Fairborn Dispatch Center handled 111,178 inbound and outbound telephone calls. Of those calls, 13,677 were handled by the 9-1-1 emergency phone system, which equates to 12.3% of the total call volume handled by the Dispatch Center. All non-emergency calls are handled on non-emergency telephone lines.

The Emergency Call Works Next Generation 9-1-1 system allows for the text to 9-1-1 messages to be received in dispatch. In 2020, the department received 28 text to 9-1-1 contacts.

Property Room

The following is a list of accomplishments for the property room for the year 2020.
