

EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF VETERANS SERVICES TRANSITION TOOLKIT

HONORABLY SERVING THOSE WHO HAVE SERVED US

Welcome Home

Massachusetts Veterans and Families,

It is my distinct privilege to present the first edition of the Executive Office of Veterans Services (EOVS) Transition Toolkit.

This guide will serve as a handy reference as you make your transition to civilian life in Massachusetts, helping you understand and navigate the myriad programs, services, and benefits available to you and your family.

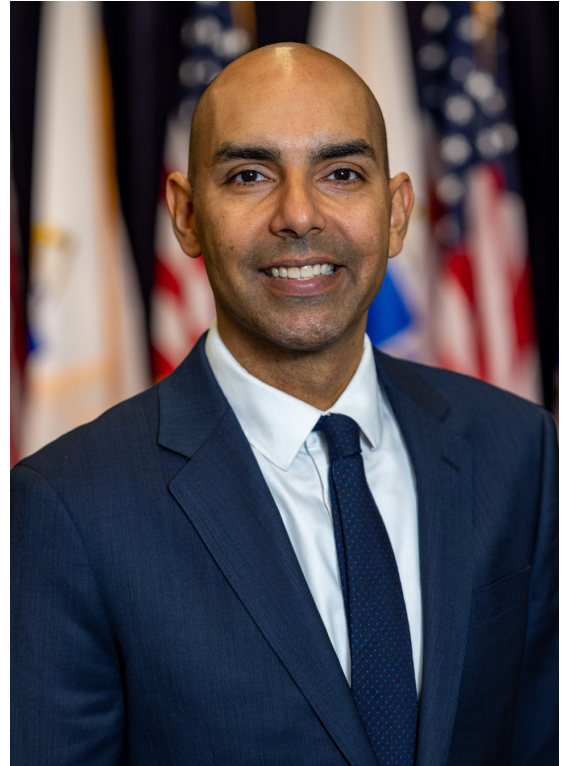

To keep this guide concise and navigable, each section highlights some of the top benefits and programs by theme, from housing and education to employment. If you wish to conduct further research on a given topic, links to additional resources can be found at the conclusion of this Toolkit.

I would be remiss if I did not thank those whose previous work had an influence on the creation of this Toolkit. We are grateful for the Secretary of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, CalVet Veterans Resource Guide, the Department of Labor's VETS Resource Guide, and many others whose efforts contributed to this work.

It is my sincere pleasure to welcome you and your family home to Massachusetts. I thank you for your sacrifice to this country and we at EOVS look forward to continuing to honorably serve those who served us.

Sincerely

Secretary Jon Santiago, MD, MPH

EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF VETERANS SERVICES

VETERANS SERVICE OFFICERS

Upon your separation from the military, one of the first and most critical relationships to establish is with your local Veterans Service Officer (VSO). Located in cities and towns across Massachusetts, VSOs are dedicated to helping you and your family access your veteran benefits, such as Chapter 115 financial assistance, healthcare, housing, and education.

Your VSO can also help you apply for U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs benefits, including service-connected disability claims, job readiness, home loans, and burial benefits.

Locate your Veterans Service Officer today.

MASSACHUSETTS WOMEN VETERANS NETWORK

The Executive Office of Veterans Services (EOVS) is the central resource for Women Veterans in Massachusetts.

Established in 1997, the Women Veterans Network (WVN)'s mission is to find women who served in the military, some of whom may not be aware that they are veterans and eligible for benefits they have earned through their service.

STATEWIDE ADVOCACY FOR VETERANS EMPOWERMENT (SAVE) PROGRAM

SAVE is a peer outreach program that connects veterans, helps them access benefits and services, and supports their mental health.

SAVE acts as a liaison between veterans, their families, and the various federal and state government agencies to advocate for veterans who cannot obtain benefits due to institutional or personal barriers.

The program's primary mission is to prevent suicide and mental health distress.

The SAVE team works closely and in collaboration with the Massachusetts National Guard. Resources offered by the Massachusetts National Guard and their Family Readiness Program are available to all service members and their families, regardless of the branch in which they serve.

SUPPORTING & EMPOWERING REINTEGRATION FOR VETERANS EQUALITY (SERVE)

SERVE specialists provide peer support to Veteran Treatment Courts (VTC) and Diversion programs. Each program aims to assist veterans by connecting them with services and supporting them in the pre-court process.

VTC programs are court-supervised, treatment-focused collaboratives for defendants who have served in the United States Armed Forces.

SERVE specialists work with primarily non-VA eligible veterans to complete either program through a coordinated effort among the veteran's services delivery system, community-based providers, and the court.

EDUCATION

POST 9/11 GI BILL

The Post-9/11 GI Bill offers financial support for education, housing, and more.

To be eligible for 100% benefits, an individual must have:

- Served on active duty for at least 1,095 days (36 months)
- Received a Purple Heart post-9/11, or
- Served for 30 continuous days with a service-connected disability discharge.

For those who served less than 36 months, eligibility is partially determined by the total time served on active duty, with or without breaks. The percentage of benefits varies based on the duration of service:

- Less than 90 days: Ineligible
- 90 days to 6 months: 50%
- 6 months to 1 year: 60%
- 1 to 18 months: 70%
- 18 to 24 months: 80%
- 24 to 30 months: 90%
- 30 to 36 months: 100%

Days	Months	% of Benefit
910 to 1,094 days	30 to 35 months	90% of the full benefit
730 to 909 days	24 to 29 months	80% of the full benefit
545 to 729 days	18 to 23 months	70% of the full benefit
180 to 544 days	6 to 17 months	60% of the full benefit
90 to 179 days	90 days to 5 months	50% of the full benefit

GI Bill full rates for school and training programs:
August 1, 2023, to July 31, 2024

The amounts listed below are the maximum the VA will pay within an academic year for each type of school or training program.

Find out the full rate based on what type of school you’re attending:

Institution	GI Bill Benefit
Public institution of higher learning (state university/community college)	All net tuition/fees
Private institution of higher learning	Net tuition/fees up to $27,120.05
Foreign institution of higher learning	Net tuition/fees up to $27,120.05 in U.S dollars
Non-college degree programs	Net tuition/fees up to $27,120.05
Flight Training	Net tuition/fees up to $15,497.15
Correspondence school	Net tuition/fees up to $13,172.57

Monthly Housing Allowance

Veterans eligible for the Post-9/11 GI Bill may also receive financial assistance for housing while studying. The Monthly Housing Allowance (MHA) is disbursed at the end of each month and is calculated based on two factors:

- The percentage of post-9/11 GI Bill benefits the veteran is eligible for
- Amount of credits the veteran is taking, or how many clock hours they’re scheduled to attend per week.
