This concert is made possible by the generous donation of the Bristol County Savings Bank. We welcome all community members to join in on the Christmas concert fun. Mayor Paul Coogan expressed, "This tremendous concert is always a good time and allows the community to come together to celebrate the holiday season."

"The Bank is proud to have partnered once again with Mayor Coogan and the City of Fall River to bring this much anticipated holiday concert to our community," said Patrick Murray, President & CEO of Bristol County Savings Bank. "The event is going to benefit a great cause and is sure to get everyone into the Christmas spirit, so we hope to see you there on December 22nd!"

The acclaimed Sons of Serendip who were recognized finalists on America's Got Talent, have captivated audiences globally with four of their albums. Opening the concert, The Khourys, are a dynamic sister duo from Fall River who are known for their powerful vocals.

All of the proceeds from purchased tickets will be going to the Community Christmas Toy Drive, an initiative by the City of Fall River, Mayor Paul Coogan, and Law Enforcement Assisting Families (L.E.A.F.)
