Fall River Kite Night 2024

(FALL RIVER, MA- June 17, 2024)- The City of Fall River in collaboration with Viva Fall River and the Redevelopment Authority are excited to announce that Kite Night is back again this summer! Fall River Kite Night is on June 20th 5:00pm -8:00pm at the Senator Thomas Norton City Pier, 600 Davol Street. In the event of inclement weather, this event will be rescheduled to June 27th.

This event will feature food trucks, music, and free kite giveaways (while supplies last). Kite demonstrations will be hosted by Three Moon Rising Kites and Bubbles. The Fall River Public Library's Bookmobile will be in attendance and materials from the bookmobile can be checked out with a library card. Library cards are free and available with photo ID and proof of address. The Trustees Adventure Mobile will be on site to provide outdoor nature play experiences. Music will be provided by DJ Eric J.

Grab a delicious bite to eat or a treat to enjoy from one of our featured food trucks:

- Green Jar Cocina
- Pop's Mobile Brick Oven Pizza
- What's Up Cupcake
- Del's Lemonade
- Grub Guru

The Fall River Trolley will run shuttle service from the parking lot at 10 North Main Street. The shuttle is free, handicapped accessible, and will run in a constant loop every 15-20 minutes. Parking is also available in the parking lot on Davol Street, between Hathaway and Taylor Street. There is also parking available at Battleship Cove and Veterans Memorial Bicentennial Park. See the parking and shuttle graphic for options.
