i. Bluffs at Lafayette Mixed Use Planned Development Project – Proposed Resolution (Tab 9)

-City Director Hughes-Neel introduced the Bluffs at Lafayette Project as a 15-20 year build out plan that would include single family units, multi-family units, and commercial builds. The project builders were requesting an increase in the maximum standard building height to 60 feet and sought approval from the Council. Councilwoman Green asked for clarification on the height requirements that were given to them by a representative from Eglin Air Force Base. City Director Hughes Neel confirmed that the height request from the Eglin representative was to keep everything under a two-story build (35 feet build) and opened the floor to Project Agent Matthew Parker to answer any technical questions the Council may have.

-Mr.Parker introduced the proposed plan to the Council as a compatible fit with the future for the City of Freeport, and the consistency it would have with the expansion of the sewer plant down Highway 331. Mr.Parker informed the Council that his firm had been working very closely with the City's Engineer and the Owl's Head Consultants for consistent connectivity between the projects. Mr.Parker informed the Council that the project would mainly consist of single-family units, noting that the height demands were just a possibility and would be contingent upon the growth of the City. Mr.Parker explained to the Council that three stories would be the max for potential builds at this time due to the economic downside of such an investment. City Director Hughes-Neel informed the Council that the project is on the 331 North Corridor which would subject it to all the standards of that landscape. Councilwoman Green expressed her concerns with the side setbacks for the proposed plans, noting the flooding issues Hammock Bay had experienced with the standard being at 5 feet. Mr. Parker explained the differences in the terrain and why a 5 feet setback would be sufficient for the area.

Councilwoman Green noted that the plan would be a 15-20 year execute which would leave room for landscape changes due to different developers and climate concerns. City Director Hughes-Neel informed the Council that certain requirements have been put in place to ensure that new builds are building at a certain level to alleviate flooding issues, noting that many of the prior builds did not have the guidelines that are in place today. Mr. Parker suggested that the Council accept the Resolution with changes that prohibit side setbacks being used for stormwater drainage. Councilman Martin clarified the use of setbacks and the lack of effect the size would play in drainage issues. City Attorney Adkinson suggested to the Council to approve the Resolution contingent to the setbacks being 5 feet provided adequate stormwater engineering is submitted to show that it would not have an adverse impact on those lots with 5 foot setbacks; that no swells or stormwater retention or runoff would be directed through those 5 foot setbacks. City Attorney Adkinson noted that by adding this contingency that during the D.O they would be able to revisit if they have any concerns and asked for Mr. Parkers approval of this to which he agreed. City Attorney Adkinson explained that a motion would need to be made to approve the Resolution upon the noted contingency.

COUNCIL ACTION: Motioned by: Councilman Martin.

i. North Walton Tourist Development Tax

-Mayor Barley invited Megan Harrison, the CEO of the Walton County Chamber of Commerce to speak on the North Walton Tourist Development Tax. Mrs. Harrison greeted the Council and began to inform them on the North Walton Tourist Development Tax and the benefits it will have on the City. Mrs. Harrison clarified that this tax would not be imposed on local citizens but on the tourist and would generate funds to improve the local infrastructure. The North Walton Tourist Development Tax will be on the November ballot for voting, therefore Mrs. Harrison wanted the Council to consider drafting a Resolution in support of the bill so they could assist in educating residents. Councilwoman Brannon asked for clarity on Mrs. Harrison's idea of support which prompted Attorney Adkinson to notify the Council of the legal guidelines which prohibits them from doing so unless they abided by specific language. The Council began to discuss the effects the tax would have on growth within the City, and the continuous cycle of tourism. Some Council Members cautioned that tourism could overcrowd the City and prevent residents from enjoying local attractions without congestion. Other Councilmembers felt that it would be a good idea to showcase more of the entire county and could bring in more money for businesses. Mrs. Harrison informed the Council that 40% of the tax dollars collected must be spent on marketing, and that some small businesses would get free promotion. City Attorney Adkinson noted to the Council that the taxing district would be expanding and would open the door for a representative to be selected throughout the County. Councilmen Farris made a motion in support of a resolution that supported the expansion of the taxing district, with special modifications being made to the language of the Resolution Mrs. Harrison petitioned for. The Mayor noted that the TDC has been very generous of its support of Bay Fest marketing every year, and other Freeport events.

COUNCIL ACTION: Motioned by: Councilman Farris.
Seconded by: Councilwoman Green. 2 ayes: Councilman Farris and Councilwoman Green; 3 nays: Councilwoman Brannon, Councilman Martin, and Councilwoman Haffner.

Councilman Martin noted the benefits the tax could have for the City; however, he assessed the effects it could have on traffic before proper development is established.

Mrs. Harrison informed the Council that with the expansion of the taxing district a member from the City of Freeport would be able to make input on how the revenue from the tax collected would be spent. Councilwoman Green noted that the City of Freeport already experiences ripple tourism, and that the City could benefit from the tourism due to the variety of activities offered.

Councilwoman Brannon informed the Council that it would ultimately be left up to the voters to make the decision. Councilman Farris made a motion to adopt the resolution that satisfies the legal standards supporting the expansion of the tourist development district.
