LOCAL DISASTER EMERGENCY DECLARATION COVID-19

WHEREAS, COVID-19, is a respiratory disease, which is a new strain of coronavirus that had not been previously identified in humans and can easily spread from person to person, which can result in serious illness or death thereby threatening widespread and/or severe damage to life or property thereby creating an “emergency” as defined by Idaho Code § 46-1002; and

WHEREAS, The CDC identifies the potential public health threat posed by COVID-19 both globally and in the United State as “high”, and has advised that person-to-person spread of COVID-19 will continue to occur globally, including within the United States; and

WHEREAS, On January 30, 2020, the International Health Regulations Emergency Committee of the World Health Organization declared the outbreak a “public health emergency of international concern”; and

WHEREAS, On January 31, 2020, Health and Human Services Secretary Alex M. Azar II declared a public health emergency for the United States to aid the nation’s healthcare community in responding to COVID-19; and

WHEREAS, On March 11, 2020, The World Health Organization (WHO) made the assessment that COVID-19 is a pandemic; and

WHEREAS, On March 12, 2020 Panhandle Health District issued recommendations for mass gatherings and public events in order to contain and slow the spread of COVID-19; and

WHEREAS, On March 13, 2020, the President of the United States issued an emergency declaration for the country in response to the increasing number of COVID-19 cases within the U.S; and

WHEREAS, On March 13, 2020, Idaho Governor Brad Little declared a state of emergency in Idaho to address the COVID-19 outbreak; and

WHEREAS, On March 15, 2020 Kootenai County Commission Chairman Chris Fillios issued a local disaster emergency activating the county wide Office of Emergency Management, pursuant to Idaho Code § 46-1011 and other relevant sections of Idaho Code and approved by the Board of County Commissioners on March 17, 2020; and

WHEREAS, A local disaster emergency may be declared by the Mayor within a political subdivision, pursuant to Idaho Code § 46-1011 and other relevant sections of Idaho Code; and

WHEREAS, In accordance with Idaho Code, the effect of such declaration is to activate the recovery aspects of any and all applicable local or intergovernmental disaster emergency plans and to authorize the furnishing of aid and assistance thereunder; and

WHEREAS, The City of Hayden desires to take action in order to be proactive and help reduce the spread of this virus, and encourages our community members and community businesses to do their part to prevent and limit the spreading of this virus; and

WHEREAS, Pursuant to Idaho Code § 67-2808 (1), the public interest and necessity may demand the immediate expenditure of public money to secure materials, equipment, and services from private and public entities to provide disaster emergency relief and assistance to persons threatened, injured, or victimized by the unhealthy, unsafe, or unsustainable conditions of COVID-19; and

WHEREAS, The public interest and necessity may demand the immediate modifications to processes, procedures, and fees of the City to provide disaster emergency relief and assistance to persons threatened, injured, or victimized by the unhealthy, unsafe, or unsustainable conditions of COVID-19; and

WHEREAS, The City may pass all ordinances and make all regulations necessary to preserve the public health; prevent the introduction of contagious diseases into the city; make quarantine laws for that purpose and enforce the same within five (5) miles of the City, pursuant to Idaho Code §50-304;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Steven J. Griffiths, Mayor of the City of Hayden, Idaho, do hereby proclaim and declare a local disaster emergency in the City of Hayden, Kootenai County, Idaho as a result of COVID-19. All city departments are directed to utilize city resources as follows:

1. To do everything reasonably possible to assist affected individuals and entities to respond to and recover from the outbreak.
2. To follow the recommendation of the Centers for Disease Control (“CDC”) and Panhandle Health District (“PHD”) by canceling City sponsored events consistent with the most current recommendations from CDC and PHD.
3. To identify and suspend rules, policies, and fees necessary to encourage city residents to conduct business with the city, or to comment on matters of public concern, without the need of coming to City Hall or attending public meetings and hearings in person.

4. For purposes of Idaho Code § 67-2808(1), the city is authorized to expend any sum required to manage this emergency without compliance with formal bidding procedures.
5. To take all other reasonably necessary steps to slow the spread of COVID-19.

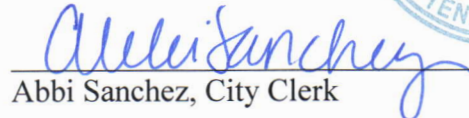

This declaration shall remain in effect for a period of seven (7) days, unless extended pursuant to authorization of the Hayden City Council in accordance with Idaho Code § 46-1011(1).

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand on this 17th day of March, 2020.
