

Hopkinsville African American History Cell Phone Tour

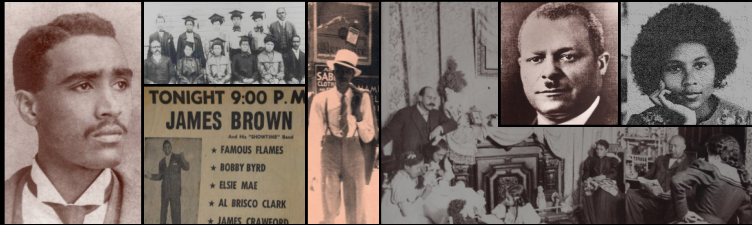

Tour Guide - Matt Snorton

270 - 854 - 3056

A few simple instructions are all you need to start your audio tour. Audio stop numbers are displayed on the back of this card. Simply enter the appropriate audio stop number on your cell phone keypad. Disconnect the call while traveling between stops. You can rejoin as many times as you like by redialing the tour phone number. Enjoy the tour!

Pictured include: attorney J.T. Whitney; M&F Class of 1909; Chitlin Circuit entertainer James Brown; PT Frazer, Jr., MD; author/Hopkinsville native bell hooks; and entrepreneur Peter Postell and family.

1 Founders Square Mural

Corner 9th & Main Streets

2 Peter Postell Block

113½-119 East Sixth Street

3 Virginia Street Hotel

111 East Fourth Street

4 Virginia St Baptist Church

209 South Virginia Street

5 Brooks Memorial Hospital

201-203 South Virginia Street

6 Freeman Chapel, CME

137 South Virginia Street

7 Male & Female College

125 North Vine Street

8 Attucks High School

Corner 1st & Vine Streets

9 The Poston Family

809 Hayes Street

10 Booker T. Washington

731 East Second Street

11 Aaron McNeil House

604 East Second Street

12 Black Police Precinct

201 South Campbell Street

13 The Whitney Family

532 East Fourth Street

14 Dr. Frazier & Dr. Frazer

207 South Clay Street

15 Brooks Pharmacy

308 East Fourth Street

16 Chitlin Circuit

400-402 Liberty Street

Ted Poston (left) and colleagues

The Moore Clinic

17 Moore Clinic

Corner 5th & Liberty Streets

18 Pennyroyal Area Museum

217 East Ninth Street

Our thanks to Hopkinsville-Christian County Convention & Visitors Bureau & WHOP AM/FM radio for assistance with this production.