OFFICE OF MAYOR CITY OF HOUSTON, ALASKA

Carter R. Cole Mayor David Childs Deputy Mayor

February 2025

Councilmembers and Citizens of Houston,

I met with the Mat-Su Borough in February and found that they are in the process of submitting an RFP this spring for the design and improvement of King Arthur Drive from the Parks Highway to No Name Hill Road. They are estimated that Construction will not begin until 2026, which provides us a little more time to install the gas lines prior to the road improvements.

Alaska is in the spotlight after the President's State of The Union Address to Congress. Below is a graph that shows the comparison of the investment between the Trans-Alaska Pipeline completed in 1977 for $8 billion dollars, and the $1.1 trillion dollar investment announce by President Trump from Japan and South Korea. The investment will be for a long-term energy supply with LNG as the primary export fuel.

The 42" LNG pipeline is already permitted from the North Slope to Nikiski on the Kenai Peninsula. They can start the project at any point once the agreements are signed.

The benefit of the pipeline for our citizens who are currently benefiting from or want natural gas expansions will be a secured 100-year supply of natural gas at approximately  $\frac{1}{4}$  of the current cost. This investment in Alaska is critical to the security and energy of the future and will provide boundless opportunity to current and future generations. I encourage the younger generation to get the training now so they will be ready to build and operate all the new infrastructure.

Valley mayors will meet with Representative Begich on this subject, and I will continue to update you as more information becomes available. The future of Alaska has never been brighter than it is right now. We must keep in mind the basic infrastructure we need to accommodate this future as we move forward. We continue to pursue every opportunity to expand natural gas throughout the city, and we will address that more in the future.

We will be starting the mayor's budget process on March 17-19. This year we will invite the public to attend and learn how we put the budget together to present to the City Council for acceptance.

I encourage anyone interested in seeing how this process works to attend. The time, date, and department under review will be posted on the city website for any interested parties. There seemed to be misperception or misinformation about the budget and budget process that the Directors and I thought would be beneficial for the public to observe the process from start to finish.

February has been so busy I had to reschedule the road improvement work session into April, I will be putting out more information soon regarding this. Unfortunately, there have been several issues that have consumed additional time.

I would like to thank Councilmember Faubert and Brasel for their help in selecting a law firm to investigate a matter for the City Council.

I would also like to thank Councilmember Mitchell and Deputy Mayor Childs for their work on establishing code regarding ethics and conduct for the City Council. I am looking forward to establishing this section back into the HMC.

Unfortunately, I need to address the behavior of a small percentage of the public towards the employees working for all the citizens around the city. Our employees are public servants that provide citizens with services identified and properly funded under the HMC and annual budget and policies set by the City Council.

The Staff does not have the authority to change the code requirements, or any budgetary items. Additionally, the city does not provide trash pickup on a regular basis, and that service can be found through private companies.

Shouting and making accusatory statements towards the staff members can be considered harassment. Part of my responsibility is to ensure a work environment is free from this type of behavior. The vast majority of Houston Citizens are courteous and a pleasure to serve, which we greatly appreciate. But to the minority who continue this behavior, please call me before resorting to harassing staff.

If I can't resolve the issue, then you will be informed of your rights and any remedies available to you before we are done discussing the items.

Spring is coming so please be careful out on the lakes as they thaw, think before you do it, it has been warmer than usual.

God Bless!

Carter R. Cole

Honorable Council,

Finance underwent the audit for FY24 in February. This audit went much smoother, our first audit took two weeks, our second audit took a full week, and this one took four days.

During our audit, we discovered that there was an issue of employees not depositing their checks. The city must place a stop payment on a lost/outstanding check. It costs us $27.00 per check.

After discussion with the auditor, and consultation with the mayor, the best path forward for the city is to no longer provide physical checks for employees and require direct deposit.

The last physical check for employees and council to be issued will be April 4, 2025. If you currently receive a check, please contact the Clerk or Finance department for the direct deposit form.

Finance was able to finish records retention for fiscal year 2024 and worked with the Public Works and Clerks department to put the records in storage. We are in communication with the auditors and hope to have a completed report and presentation for the council soon.

We continued with our duties of processing AP, AR, and Payroll.

February 2025

February was slower road maintenance-wise for Public Works as we didn't get much freezing rain, and it did not thaw enough for the roads to soften. This gave us some much-needed time to focus on many admin duties for the upcoming months. The dump truck chassis, along with the snowplow, estimated delivery time is still early 2026, so it won't be available for this summer's road repairs. The equipment grant sped up this purchase by many years for this and other equipment.

The new full size dump truck is expected to be delivered in early 2026

Public Works also applied for two grants that, if funded, will enable the city to develop the cleared areas near the campground into a ballfield that can be used for a wide array of sports. We are also looking into grants that could potentially help pave part of the parking area so it can be used for helicopter medivacs. The current area near Station 9-1 requires that Armstrong Road be closed until the helicopter operations are completed, so moving it to the new area will avoid those road closures, reducing the chances of accidents by letting traffic through rather than having cars parked on the roadway that close to the Parks Highway. Armstrong requires three closures, one at the Parks, one at the east end of Station 9-1, and one at the city hall/campground road intersection, so moving it will free up three responders as well as keeping the public safer.

Founder Day 2025 preparations continue with some new changes this year. The Parks budget, which becomes a self-supporting enterprise fund on July 1st, will not be able to continually fund future Founders Days needed an alternative option, so the Chamber of Commerce took on the task and will help supplement the costs with vendor space rentals. We were able to get the permit details finalized and the city will still be handling many other tasks, other than the vendor applications. This will help keep the event free for the public over the coming years as well as helping add more items to Founders

Day to make it more enjoyable for everyone who attends it. Many expenses such as flaggers, sani-can rentals, and others must be planned early, which means they cross fiscal years, creating extra budgetary work, so that will not be a problem with a non-profit entity helping us with the event. There is still tons of work for the Public Works crew to do before the event, so we'll still be extremely busy.

People were stealing firewood from the Little Su Day Use area, so I opened the area up for firewood cutting. This gives people a chance to get free firewood while also helping reduce the hazard fuel loading by removing the beetle kill spruce. So far the roads and trails have been kept clear so we will be issuing another round of firewood permits for the area around the beginning of March. I also opened another firewood area along Zero Lake Trail to give residents another firewood cutting opportunity in addition to the Kenlar Road and Zero Lake Road firewood areas. More potential firewood areas will be opened in the future after the boundaries are marked better as they are smaller parcels next to private ownership.

Public Works Report:

- Founders Day 2025 planning continues.
- Hazard fuel loading reduction continues in the campground area in preparation for the start of fire season.
- The old John Deere grader is still awaiting an opening at a shop to complete the exhaust manifold gasket repair.
- Follow-up on grant application submissions continues.
- CIP nominations are still being received and most of the CIP has been updated. Several new submissions are missing information, so consequently some sections of the new CIP are missing it too since the information was not provided to us.
- Revision of online forms continues as we standardize both the printed and online versions for 2025 before the construction season starts. Several minor fixes were made as they were discovered throughout the year
- I am starting to schedule equipment replacements by listing them in the CIP as we must continue having reliable equipment to do our jobs. It is a scheduled rotation based on the projected hours of usage to reduce a large financial impact.

Parks Report:

• We have one application for the 2025 camp host position.

- (2) The inability of a person to provide the certification required below will not necessarily result in denial of participation in this covered transaction. The prospective participant shall submit an explanation of why it cannot provide the certification set out on this form. The certification or explanation will be considered in connection with the department or agency's determination whether to enter into this transaction. However, failure of the prospective primary participant to furnish a certification or an explanation shall disqualify such person from participation in this transaction.
- (3) The certification in this clause is a material representation of fact upon which reliance was placed when the department or agency determined to enter into this transaction. If it is later determined that the prospective primary participant knowingly rendered an erroneous certification, in addition to other remedies available to the Federal Government, the department or agency may terminate this transaction for cause or default.
- (4) The prospective primary participant shall provide immediate written notice to the department or agency to which this proposal is submitted if at any time the prospective primary participant learns that its certification was erroneous when submitted or has become erroneous by reason of changed circumstances.

14. Council, Clerk, & Mayor Comments

Johansen: Thanked the public for coming and participating.

Faubert: Thanked the public for coming and participating, every single person in the city has something to offer and is valuable. Honored to be in her position and always puts the community before anything else.

Brasel: Thank you to the public member who stuck around. Disappointed to hear we're back to hearing about the smell in the community but doesn't want any business or industry to stink. Engagement with them should correct the issue. Continuing the abatement of beetle kill around town is a valid one but not sure of the legal framework around the city engaging private property but there is still plenty of city property that can be used for seniors etc. Second time recently has heard a proposal to raise sales tax and, in the past, it failed with a resounding no.

McDonald: Thank you to the public and is proud to be one who represents some of those people out there and looks forward to hearing from all people, when the people email the council as a whole it provides them all with the same information at the same time and is very effective.

Deputy Mayor Childs: Thoroughly enjoyed Christian Hartley's presentation and his time spent in Juneau as well. Appreciated Ms. Johansen's public education efforts with wildfire prevention. Thanked Mr. Brasel for his research and knowledge provided regarding IT. Apologized to Ms. McDonald for interrupting her time, he was out of order. Sales tax possibility, use the parameters stated by Mr. Hall and we might have a little better survivability...attended the celebration of life for Mr. Fouts, happy to see there were 200 people there in attendance.

Mayor Cole: 5 yr plan, putting together a work session for that, have the roads fixed, has pulled information/audited records/actual spending from the city/all the budgets for past 10-15 years, shows in the past two budget cycles the public works budget has increased and hopefully soon the public will be able to see all that.

15. Adjournment: Meeting adjourned at 9:12pm.

Initiative Petition to Add HMC 10.01 to the Houston City Code RE:

Introduction

The Clerk's Office has requested that we analyze the petition application filed February 3, 2025, for a ballot initiative entitled "Protecting Houston's Future: Let Voters Decide if Houston Needs a Municipal Airport." The stated purpose of the initiative is to: "Ensure that no public money, city resources, or land acquisition efforts are used to plan, develop, or build a municipal airport unless approved by a majority of voters in a regular municipal election."

1. Factual and Legal Background

On February 3, 2025, the Clerk's Office received a petition application for a ballot initiative that would place the following question before Houston voters: "Should the City of Houston be allowed to spend public money, use city resources, or acquire land from the State of Alaska to plan, develop, or build a municipal airport without voter approval?" The application included a proposed addition to the Houston Municipal Code and a proposed ordinance enacting the new code provisions.

Among other things, the proposed code addition, HMC 10.01.050, provides that "[t]he City of Houston shall not expend or obligate any financial resources, personnel, city-owned land, or other municipal assets toward the planning, development, or establishment of a municipal airport." The proposed code addition includes an exception under which the City may direct resources to the planning and development of an airport upon a majority vote in a regularly scheduled municipal election authorizing such expenditures.

Alaska Statute 29.26.110 provides the requirements that an application for a voter initiative must satisfy. Under the statute, the application must include the following: (1) the ordinance or resolution to be initiated or referred; (2) "the name and address of a contact person and an alternate to whom all correspondence relating to the petition may be sent"; and (3) the signatures of at least 10 voters who will sponsor the petition. To be certified by the City Clerk, the proposed initiative must also meet the following requirements: (1) comply with Article XI, Section 7 of the Alaska Constitution; (2) include only a single subject; (3) relate to "a legislative rather than to an administrative matter"; and (4) be enforceable as a matter of law.

If the application satisfies these requirements, the Clerk must certify the application within two weeks of its filing. $^4$

Article XI, Section 7 of the Alaska Constitution provides that "[t]he initiative shall not be used to dedicate revenues, make or repeal appropriations, create courts, define the jurisdiction of courts or prescribe their rules, or enact local or special legislation."

2. Analysis

The application to place the "Protecting Houston's Future" initiative on the ballot should be rejected because, although the application appears to meet the formal requirements of AS 29.26.110, the proposed code addition is unenforceable as a matter of law.

As a threshold matter, the application appears formally proper in that it includes the ordinance to be initiated, the contact information of both a primary contact and an alternate, and the signatures of ten voters who will sponsor the petition.<sup>5</sup> The Clerk's Office has confirmed that all signatures are associated with registered Houston voters.

Moreover, the proposed initiative refers only to a single subject and appears to concern a legislative matter, rather than an administrative matter. The Alaska Supreme Court has held that a ballot proposal is legislative in character when: (1) "[i]t is permanent in nature rather than temporary"; (2) "[i]t declares a new policy and deals with the overall policy question rather than merely a small segment of preestablished policy"; and (3) "it establishes a new law rather than executing a law already in existence." Each of these factors is met in this case. Proposed HMC 10.01.050, if approved by the voters, would be a new law. And the proposed law declares a comprehensive new policy—a total prohibition on the City Council's expenditure of resources toward planning or developing a municipal airport. Finally, HMC 10.01.050 has no expiration date, and therefore is permanent, rather than temporary in nature.

However, the proposed code addition appears to violate the requirement that an initiative be enforceable as a matter of law. "The power to initiate cannot exceed the power to legislate." In Griswold v. City of Homer, the Alaska Supreme Court concluded that a proposed ballot initiative seeking to amend the City of Homer's zoning laws was an impermissible use of the initiative process because the city council—and therefore the voters—lacked the authority to bypass the Homer Advisory Planning Commission in making zoning decisions. The Court's determination relied on two sources of statutory authority: "Alaska statutes providing for planning, platting, and land use regulation by local governments, and Kenai Peninsula Borough ordinances delegating zoning powers to cities within the borough." The Court determined that these authorities required the City of Homer to establish a planning commission, which in turn was required to work with the City to draft a comprehensive land use plan. The Court concluded: "A borough or a city, having the power possessed by the City of Homer, cannot pass or amend a zoning ordinance without involving its planning commission in reviewing that ordinance."

The Court's decision in Griswold is sufficient basis for the Clerk's Office to reject the proposed initiative here. Although the "Protecting Houston's Future" initiative does not propose a broadly applicable zoning amendment like the initiative in Griswold, the principles the Court relied on apply with equal force in this case.

Pursuant to AS 29.40.010, the Matanuska-Susitna Borough by Ordinance No. 09-112 delegated its powers and duties regarding "planning, platting, and land use regulation on an areawide basis" to the City of Houston, which accepted said delegation by Ordinance No. 09-07. 12 Houston Municipal Code 7.06.010 establishes the City Planning and Zoning Commission, which is tasked with, among other things conducting a review of the Comprehensive Plan "at least once every two years and mak[ing] recommendations to the Council for amendments." 13 The Commission is also responsible for holding hearings and making decisions on "applications for variances, rezones, and other procedures that may be required by the land use code." 14 In other words, "the planning commission plays an important part in the formation and amendment of local land use regulations by providing assistance to the [city] to ensure that development proceeds in a 'systematic and organized' manner." <sup>15</sup>

By prohibiting the City from expending any resources in furtherance of planning, developing, or establishing a municipal airport, without the input or consultation of the Planning Commission, the "Protecting Houston's Future" initiative "'exceeds the scope of the legislative power granted by the [state] legislature' to the local legislature and is thus unenforceable as a matter of law." <sup>16</sup> Accordingly, the initiative fails to satisfy the minimum requirements of AS 29.26.110(a) and must be rejected.

The initiative appears unenforceable as a matter of law for a second reason: it would impermissibly divest "the local legislature's statutorily-mandated role in zoning and land use planning. Such a divestiture would be beyond the legislature's power, so it is also beyond the power of the initiative."<sup>17</sup> In Carmony v. McKechnie, the Alaska Supreme Court made clear that the legislature "does not have the power to divest itself and succeeding [legislatures] . . . of powers vested in it by the general law for the benefit of its constituents; for this would be to repeal pro tanto the general law." "18

The initiative at issue in Carmony would have subjected any land use enactment of the Matanuska-Susitna Borough to a popular vote. <sup>19</sup> The Court determined that this initiative, if passed, would amount to a divestiture of the borough assembly's powers and obligations under state law to enact and maintain a comprehensive land use plan for the Borough. <sup>20</sup> Because the legislature did not have the power to divest itself of this authority, the Court concluded that the voters could not accomplish the same result via ballot initiative. <sup>21</sup> Accordingly, the Court held that the initiative was unenforceable as a matter of law and could not be accepted. <sup>22</sup>

The same is true in this case. Under HMC 2.04.010, the City Council is tasked with exercising "all of the legislative powers and policy-making powers of the City" and providing "for the performance of all duties and obligations imposed upon the City by law." As detailed above, the City accepted the Borough's delegation of land use regulation authority under state law by Ordinance No. 09-07.<sup>23</sup> HMC 10.01.010 implements this authority—its purpose is "to regulate the use of land and improvements, in accordance with the City of Houston Comprehensive Plan." The "Protecting Houston's Future" initiative divests the City Council of the power over land use planning and regulation these statutory authorities vest in the Council by making decisions regarding planning, development, and establishment of a municipal airport a matter to be voted on by the public. By stripping the Council of this authority, the initiative exceeds the legislature's power to divest itself "of powers vested in it by the general law for the benefit of its constituents," and therefore the initiative is unenforceable as a matter of law. The initiative should be rejected on this basis.

Finally, the initiative could also be interpreted to violate Article XI, Section 7 of the Alaska Constitution. Article, Section 7 provides that an initiative may "not be used to dedicate revenues [or] make or repeal appropriations." In addition to the prohibition the proposed initiative places on any expenditures by the City Council toward the planning and development of a municipal airport, the initiative provides that such expenditures may be made if a majority of voters authorize them through a ballot initiative or referendum at a regularly scheduled municipal election. <sup>25</sup> The functional effect of this provision is to necessitate an impermissible appropriation for airport planning and development via referendum in the future—if such planning and development is ever to be authorized. In other words, although this specific initiative does not dedicate or appropriate any funds, the code addition it proposes unconstitutionally authorizes future appropriations via ballot initiative or referendum. However, because the initiative is unenforceable as a matter of law for the reasons detailed above, the Clerk's Office need not reach the question of the initiative's constitutionality to reject the initiative.

Conclusion

For the foregoing reasons, the Clerk's Office should reject the initiative petition application for the "Protecting Houston's Future" ballot initiative. We are available to discuss the matter further at your convenience.

Hello,

My concern when we spoke this morning on the phone was that the rebuttal packet you want to provide now to the Council was not part of the original Ballot Initiative Application nor the Notice of Appeal. The attorney agreed with me. Your Notice of Appeal will be under New Business on the Agenda of the March 13, 2025, Regular City Council Meeting at City Hall beginning at 6:00pm. The information that will be provided in the Councilmembers packets to base a decision upon are as follows:

- 1. Ballot Initiative language, Ordinance language
- 2. City Attorney Opinion
- 3. City Clerk Determination Letter
- 4. Notice of Appeal Letter
- 5. This correspondence

If you have any questions, please email me, or call me at the office, ext. 205.

Thank you,

Hi Tani,

Thank you for confirming that the appeal for Protecting Houston's Future: Let Voters Decide if Houston Needs a Municipal Airport ballot initiative application rejection will be included under New Business for the March 13, 2025, Regular City Council Meeting.

I wanted to follow up on our discussion regarding the inclusion of a rebuttal packet for the council. Please let me know if there are any specific procedures I should follow to submit a rebuttal packet for the council and if there is a deadline.

Also, I am also curious about the amount time I will have to present the appeal.

Account name/number: R 02-4604 for Capital Cell Tower Lease for Revenue

E 01-101-5604 for expenses tracked under the Council Budget.

Summary statement:

I recommend we use these revenue funds that will be available when the city accepts the cell tower agreement. If any remaining money is left in the FY24-25 budget it should be used to replace these CIP Funds used for this project. Based upon conversation with the three different firms, we do not anticipate exceeding the $20,000 threshold. No firm would provide a fixed fee due to the nature of the work to be performed.

This procurement is being done under HMC 4.10.130 Limited competition procurement. A. The purchasing agent may procure supplies, services and construction having an estimated value not exceeding $20,000 by comparing current printed or electronic catalog pricing or by soliciting bids or proposals from a limited number of potential contractors under this section.

- B. The purchasing agent will identify vendors that are qualified and available to provide the supplies, services or construction, and compare catalog prices or solicit bids or proposals from at least three vendors, or from all vendors if there are no more than three. The solicitation may be either oral or written and shall be in a form reasonably calculated to yield the lowest responsive bid by a responsible bidder. In soliciting bids or proposals, the purchasing agent shall allow each vendor that submits a bid an equal opportunity to negotiate price, delivery schedule and terms.
- C. The purchasing agent shall award the contract the lowest responsive and responsible bidder or best catalog price. The purchasing agent shall keep a record of all catalog prices considered, solicitations of bids under this section, the bids received, and the awards made thereon. (Ord.  $13-17 \ \S \ 4, 2013$ )

HMC 4.10.070 Approval of contracts – Reports to Council. No contract for supplies, services or construction under which the City is obligated to pay more than $20,000 may be executed unless the Council has approved a memorandum setting forth the following essential terms of the contract:

- 1. The identity of the contractor;
- 2. The contract price;
- 3. The nature and quantity of the performance that the City shall receive under the contract;
- 4. The utilizing department; and
- 5. The time for performance under the contract.
