

The Huxley Historical Society has generously donated funds for one the new library computers. Along with this, they have donated a subscription to Ancestry.com for public patron use!

This is an amazing addition to our resources!

Stop in, check out Computer A, and enjoy the resources bookmarked there for genealogical research. We've listed several additional sites along with Ancestry.com.

Your family's journey has just begun!

