TRIBAL LEADERS CONGRESSIONAL WEEK 2026

WASHINGTON, DC

Meeting with our Representatives to advocate for Arizona's Tribes.

From Capitol Hill meetings to meaningful conversations, Arizona's tribal leaders advocated for our communities, strengthened partnerships, and carried our voices to the nation's capital.

TOGETHER, WE MAKE A DIFFERENCE.

EDUCATING. COLLABORATING. ADVOCATING. EMPOWERING.
Strong Tribes. Stronger Together.

Chairman Maldonado and Vice-Chairwoman Bradley Represent Tribe in New York and Washington, D.C.

Chairman Maldonado and Vice-Chairwoman Bradley traveled to New York City and Washington, D.C., April 20–24, representing the Tribe at a series of national events focused on Indigenous leadership, cultural preservation, and federal policy.

While in New York, Tribal leadership attended the launch of Plume at the United Nations Plaza, a newly formed collective uniting Indigenous women across Nations and generations. The initiative brings together women from tribal communities, urban areas, and those living beyond their homelands, with a shared commitment to strengthening leadership, supporting one another, and uplifting future generations.

Leadership also participated in the Medicine Bow Council, an initiative dedicated to preserving and passing down Indigenous knowledge. The program teaches youth traditional lifeways such as agriculture, hunting, and the cultural significance of ceremonies—helping foster identity, resilience, and pride. Its long-term vision centers on carrying Indigenous knowledge forward while promoting community well-being and environmental stewardship grounded in responsibility to the land.

In Washington, D.C., Chairman Maldonado and Vice-Chairwoman Bradley took part in Congressional Week alongside fellow Arizona tribal leaders, in coordination with the Inter Tribal Association of Arizona, which works in partnership with the Inter Tribal Council of Arizona.

During their time on Capitol Hill, they met with members of Congress and key staff, including Adelita Grijalva, Eli Crane, and Mark Kelly. They presented formal position papers and engaged in discussions on critical issues affecting Arizona tribes, including water rights, protection of tribal lands, sovereignty, and federal budget priorities tied to the upcoming 2027 cycle.

The week marked a strong showing of Tribal leadership on both national and international stages, reinforcing ongoing efforts to advocate for Indigenous communities while preserving culture and advancing future opportunities.

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT UPDATE

March through May 2026

Angelita S Bullets, Economic Development Director (Acting)

Thank you to the Tribal Council for allowing me to continue moving forward Economic Development projects while the Kaibab Paiute Corporation hires a CEO to manage opportunities for the Tribe. If you aren't aware, the Economic Development Director position and the Economic Development Committee will discontinue and, in its place, will be the Kaibab Paiute Corporation CEO position and Economic Development Board. The corporation is a separate body from the Tribe. The Board currently meets monthly the Thursday following the regular Tribal Council meeting.

Speaking of CEO's, we have made a tentative decision on hiring and hopefully will be finishing up negotiations and have a start date in May.

Cannabis - As you know, the Tribal Law and Order Code has been changed to include cannabis legalization on the Kaibab Indian Reservation. Next the Tribe will be preparing for the writing of regulations to manage cannabis. The tribe has contracted an attorney with expertise in cannabis in Indian Country and she will continue to advise us on standing up this venture. I anticipate the tribe will be advertising for interested tribal members to serve on the regulation commission.

C-Store - The Tu'ee Mart will most likely be renting the building next to the store for tobacco products only until it becomes needed for cannabis sales. No use in having it sit idle.

Billboards – we are working on replacing the signage soon. The billboards across the reservation that have the RV Park and Store advertisement have needed replacement since the store switched from Chevron.

Please stop by and visit, or call if you any questions 928 -643-8310

» APRIL IS « CHILD ABUSE PREVENTION MONTH

STRONG CULTURE. STRONG CHILDREN. STRONG FUTURES.

♥ Our children. Our future. Our strength. ♥

Every child deserves to grow up loved, safe, and connected.

THE FACTS

Native American children experience abuse at a rate
1.7 TIMES HIGHER than their non-Native peers.

(U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, 2021)

Yet, Native families and communities are incredibly RESILIENT.

We protect. We nurture.
We love.

Culture is prevention.

Children who are connected to their culture, language, and community are STRONGER,
HEALTHIER, and MORE RESILIENT.

» — TOGETHER, WE CAN HELP EVERY NATIVE CHILD THRIVE. — «

BUILD STRONG CONNECTIONS

Positive relationships with family, culture, and community
help children grow with confidence.

SUPPORT PARENTING

Every parent deserves support. Communities that uplift parents strengthen our children.

HONOR OUR CULTURE

Language, traditions, stories, and ceremonies are powerful gifts that protect and guide
our children.

BE A SOURCE OF HOPE

A kind word, a helping hand, and believing in our children can change their tomorrow.

WE ALL HAVE A ROLE IN KEEPING CHILDREN SAFE AND HELPING THEM REACH THEIR FULL POTENTIAL.

Stronger Together. For Our Children. For Our Communities.

Power AZ

Utility Assistance Program

What is Power AZ?

Power AZ and the Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP) provide utility assistance to help Arizonans pay their heating and cooling bills. Households may be eligible for Power AZ or LIHEAP, depending on income. Applications can be submitted online at AtoZ.az.gov or by paper application. See “How to Apply.”

Eligibility:

Households may qualify for utility assistance if their household income is 100% of the State Median Income or below, which is $8,998 per month for a household of four. Households must also show that they require assistance to pay for energy-related utilities, and meet citizenship or immigration requirements. Applicants may only receive benefits from either Power AZ or LIHEAP during the one-year eligibility period; not both.

How to Apply:

Households can apply for utility assistance by visiting AtoZ.az.gov and selecting “Housing and Energy.” Households may also submit a paper application. Please visit the DES website at des.az.gov/liheap, and select “How to Apply” for more information.

Applicants will need to provide a copy of their current utility bill, photo ID, citizenship or immigration documentation, disconnection notice (if any), and proof of income.

After the Application:

Once an application is received, the household will be considered for either LIHEAP or Power AZ eligibility, based on household income.

Benefit amounts are determined based on factors such as income and energy usage.

The maximum benefit for both Power AZ and LIHEAP is up to $640 for standard assistance and up to $500 for crisis assistance. In most cases, benefits are paid directly to utility providers on behalf of eligible households.

More Information:

For more information, visit the DES website at des.az.gov/liheap, where you will find answers to frequently asked questions (FAQs) and program information for Power AZ and LIHEAP.

Quinoa Tabbouleh Salad

Ingredients

- 1 cup quinoa, rinsed
- 2 cups water
- 1 cup cherry tomatoes, halved
- 1 cucumber, diced
- 1/4 cup red onion, finely chopped
- 1 cup parsley, chopped
- 1/4 cup mint leaves, chopped
- 3 tablespoons olive oil
- Juice of 2 lemons
- Salt and pepper, to taste

Instructions

1. Cook the quinoa
In a medium saucepan, combine the rinsed quinoa and water. Bring to a boil, then reduce heat and simmer for about 15 minutes, or until the water is absorbed and the quinoa is fluffy.
2. Cool the quinoa
Remove from heat and let it cool completely.
3. Combine the vegetables
Transfer the cooled quinoa to a large bowl. Add the cherry tomatoes, cucumber, and red onion.
4. Add fresh herbs
Stir in the parsley and mint for that classic, fresh tabbouleh flavor.
5. Make the dressing
In a small bowl, whisk together olive oil, lemon juice, salt, and pepper.
6. Toss everything together
Pour the dressing over the salad and mix until evenly coated.
7. Chill and serve
Refrigerate for at least 30 minutes before serving to let the flavors meld.

Utensils to bring

Knife, cutting board, measuring cups, measuring spoons, small saucepan, spoon for serving, large bowl and tupperware to take left overs home!

Tips

- For extra flavor, let it sit a few hours or overnight.
- Add diced avocado or chickpeas for a heartier version.
- Serve chilled as a side dish or light main.

Servings: ~4 servings Serving size: About 1–1.5 cups Calories: 220–260 per serving

Carbohydrates: 28–32g

Protein: 5–6g

Fat: 10–12g

Fiber: 4–6g

Key Nutrients

- Vitamin C – high (from lemon + tomatoes)
- Vitamin K – very high (parsley is packed with it)
- Folate – good source (quinoa + parsley)
- Potassium – moderate (cucumber, tomatoes)
- Iron – moderate (quinoa + herbs)
- Magnesium – good (quinoa)

Health Notes

- Heart-healthy fats from olive oil
 - High fiber helps digestion and fullness
 - Naturally gluten-free (quinoa-based)
 - Rich in antioxidants from herbs and veggies

Things to consider

- Calories mostly come from olive oil + quinoa
- Can be made lower-calorie by reducing oil to 2 tbsp
- Add protein (like chickpeas, chicken, or feta) to make it more filling as a main meal
