AGENDA

Friday, January 14

Call to Order:

9:00 a.m.

Finance Department Priorities (2022): Dorota Szubert, Finance Director

Priorities:

- Prepare a 5-7 year financial plan with contingencies, including the possible impact of hurricane or flooding or any event closing operations on the Island. It will be part of the budget process.
- Monitor and refine financial policies to enhance the Town's financial resiliency.
- Promote financial best practices among departments by enhancing the department head's involvement in the budget review process throughout the year and review and modernize the Town's procurement process.
- Conduct a physical inventory count to confirm the accuracy of the existing database. This will be complete before the Town's audit in September 2022.

Public Works Department Priorities (2022): Brian Gottshalk, Public Works Manager

Priorities:

- Formally defining the roles and responsibilities of the Public Works Department that pertain to the health, safety, and welfare of the community
- Defining the role of the Public Works Assistant position
- Implement plans for increased safety on Beachwalker Drive and the intersection at the Kiawah Island Parkway
- Improve solid waste disposal and collection specifically on the beach and along the Kiawah Island Parkway
- Maintain the natural look and feel of the Island at the Municipal center and along the Kiawah Island Parkway through routine maintenance and beautification initiatives

Public Safety Department Priorities (2022): Craig Harris, Public Safety Director

Priorities:

- Review the current law enforcement model the Town's has with the Charleston County Sheriff's Office.
- Understand the role and responsibility of the Town, KICA and the Resort related to public safety and security on the island.
- Building philosophical underpinnings as the new Public Safety Director.
- Increase efficient communication among all security sectors and stakeholders.

Open Discussion Priorities (2022): Mayor and Council Members
