

VOLUNTEER VOTER AMBASSADORS FOR KIAWAH & SEABROOK ISLANDS

On Monday April 29, 2024, Haley Oryell and Rachelle Roland of the Charleston County Board of Voter Registration and Elections trained 39 volunteers from John's, Wadmalow, Kiawah, and Seabrook Islands to become Voter Ambassadors to:

- Host voter registration drives
- Educate voters about elections, and
- Empower people in our communities to vote in this critical election year

Our Kiawah and Seabrook Voter Ambassadors are:

Kiawah:

Emma Ames

Marzy Bedford-Billinghurst

Marilyn Blizard

Gregg Bragg

Diane Flaherty

Rick Flaherty

Alison Frey

Carol Hurley

David Jackson

Joanne Jackson

Melissa Newhall

Judy O'Brien

Patty Orler

Pam Pollit

Julie Provenson

Eileen Rice

Gail Strickler

Seabrook:

Robin Girardi

John Reynolds

Each person above is trained in non-partisan voter registration and can assist individuals as well as conduct voter registration drives. If you know of a farmers market, corporate/retail establishment, church, school, or anywhere else people want help registering to vote, or if you wish to be trained as a volunteer Voter Ambassador, please contact our Kiawah GOTV Chair, Alison Frey, 610-742-6917, alfrey1@me.com

"Voting is the expression of our commitment to ourselves, one another, this country, and the world" - Sharon Salzberg