

January 21, 2018

- Domestic Battery / Violation of Order of Protection - Lanell T. Bell was arrested at the Extended Stay hotel after he struck his girlfriend during an altercation. The victim also had an order of protection against him which he violated by being present. He was processed and transported to a county courthouse for a bond hearing.
- Domestic Battery - Joshua V. Lawrence of Lansing was arrested in the 177th block of Community St. after he choked his girlfriend during an altercation. He was processed and transported to the Markham courthouse for a bond hearing.
- Traffic / Obstructing Identification Arrest - Quincy Williams of Chicago was stopped and arrested for driving while suspended. He also lied to the Officer about his true identity. He was processed and bonded out.
- Deceptive Practice / Resisting Arrest - Officers were called to the Dunkin Donuts, located at 17733 Torrence Ave., for an offender who was using a counterfeit $10 bill. The offender, Marcello Smith of Chicago, then ran from the Police Officers but was taken into custody a short time later. He was processed on several deceptive practice charges as he had passed counterfeit money on several other occasions. He was transported to the Markham courthouse for a bond hearing.
- Burglary to Vehicle - A victim in the 2300 block of 182nd Lane reported that an unknown offender broke out a driver's side rear window and opened up the trunk on his Chrysler 300. Nothing was reported as stolen at the time of the report.

January 20, 2018

- Warrant Arrest - Ebony Robinson was arrested in the 187th block of Salem Court after she was found to have a warrant from the Will County Sheriff's Office for a traffic case. She was processed and bonded out.
- Warrant Arrest - During the course of a traffic stop, Rachel Allen of Munster was found to have a warrant from the Cook County Sheriff's Office for a traffic case. She was processed and bonded out.
- Traffic Arrest - Horatio Scott of Chicago was stopped and arrested for driving while suspended. He was cited and bonded out at the scene.
- Warrant Arrest - South Chicago Heights Police turned over custody of Hamp D. Cooper, of Gary, to the Lansing Police Department as he had an arrest warrant for a traffic case. He was processed and transported to a county courthouse for a bond hearing.
- Domestic Battery / Resisting Police Officer Arrest - Davonte T. Kendall of Lansing was arrested in the 177th block of Escanaba Ave. after he struck his girlfriend during an altercation and then would not allow her to answer the door when Officers arrived. He was processed and transported to a county courthouse for a bond hearing.
- Warrant Arrest - During a domestic disturbance investigation, in Kilroy's parking lot, Nicholas G. Gianopolus of Hammond was arrested as he had warrants from the Calumet Police Department and the Cook County Sheriff's Office for traffic cases. He also had a warrant from the Lake County (IN) Sheriff's Office for an assault case. He was processed and transported to a county courthouse for a bond hearing.

January 18, 2018

- Burglary to Vehicle - A victim in the 3700 block of 174th Court reported that sometime overnight an unknown offender damaged his vehicle's driver's door in order to gain entry. Stolen was a travel bag and work identification.
- Residential Burglary - A victim in the 171st block of Greenbay Ave. reported that sometime over the past day an unknown offender entered a home that was getting remodeled and stole a water heater, air compressor, and tools.
- Armed Robbery - The clerk at the Sleep Inn reported that two unknown male offenders entered the hotel and demanded money from the cash drawer. They fled the area and were not located by the responding Officers.

- Traffic Arrest - Myra Walker of Blue Island was stopped and arrested for driving while suspended. She was cited and bonded out at the scene.

January 17, 2018

- Traffic Arrest - Christopher A. Bradford of St. Paul, MN was stopped and arrested for driving while suspended. He was cited and bonded out at the scene.
- Traffic Arrest - Malika R. Muhammad-Stewart of Lynwood was stopped and arrested for driving while suspended. She was cited and bonded out at the scene.

January 16, 2018

- Traffic Arrest - Juan C. Tapia-Chavez of Calumet City was stopped and arrested for driving while suspended. He was cited and bonded out at the scene.

January 15, 2018

- Soliciting for Money on Roadway Arrest - Kimberly D. Lee of Hammond, IN was arrested for begging for money on Torrence Ave. at I80/94 after having been warned several times not to. She was processed and bonded out.
- Burglary to Vehicle - A victim reported that sometime tonight her 2017 Toyota Rav4 was parked in the Eisenhower Fitness Center lot when an unknown offender broke a passenger side window. The offender then gained entry and stole a Coach purse.
- Domestic Battery Arrest - Kyle J. Savka of Lansing was arrested in the 3300 block of Madison St. after he struck his father in the face during an altercation. He was processed and transported to the Markham courthouse for a bond hearing.
- Theft / Assault / Traffic Arrests - A pizza delivery man went to the 2900 block of 185th St. to make a delivery to Curtis A. Gulley of Calumet City. Curtis grabbed the pizza, ran off with it, and threatened the victim with a knife when he chased Curtis. He then managed to flee the area in a vehicle driven by Dominique T. Chaney of Lansing which was stopped a short time later. He was arrested, charged with theft and assault, and bonded out. Dominique was arrested as she was driving while suspended. She was cited and bonded out at the scene.

Subjects are presumed innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.