

From the Madison County Clerk's Office

We want to notify you of voter totals changing from Election night to Wednesday morning. There were NO changes in the outcome of the election or the winning candidates. We noticed that the absentee ballots had been included in the totals twice. This correction has been made and as mentioned there was NO change in the outcome of the election. The results posted Election night were unofficial and the Canvass of the vote will be November 12 by the Madison County Commissioners reflecting the final correct tally.
