7. Reports – Director’s Report June 12, 2023

Registration continues for summer programs and all the programs being offered are now set. There has been a very positive response to the programs we are offering.

The first triathlon of the year will be held on Thursday, June 15th. Matt has informed me that his registration numbers are very good. There will be 4 tri-races this summer every other Thursday from the date of the first race. The Olympic Triathlon will be held on Saturday, August 12th.

The annual swim race was held on Sunday, June 11th. There was a 2-mile, 1 mile and ½ mile race. The race had 130 participants this year. It was a beautiful morning for the event and all races were well organized and completed without any issues.

Camp opens on June 19th. The early registration numbers for camp this year are fantastic. We have the highest number of kids signing up that I have seen in my time as Director. Our staff is in place and we are ready for camp to begin. David Farrington will be the Director and Olivia Ackerman will be the Assistant Director once again this summer. The staff is excited to meet the campers and have a fun, safe summer at the park.

We will be holding six summer concerts this year. Sideways will open the concert series on Thursday, June 22nd. Concerts are held every other Thursday from the first concert date. The Daily Planet will close the series on Thursday, August 31st. All concerts will be held at Blish Park and are free to the public.

Pavilion reservations have begun and going smoothly. We received one new 911 order this month.

D. LeJeune questioned the status of the SandPro. B. Lazzari replied she believes it is still on order.
