Judgment rendered May 15. A. D. 1880.

Merrimack ss. June 11th 1880.

I have taken all the right in equity which the within named debtors or either of them had on the first second and twenty first days of October 1879

when the same was attached on the original writ in this suit, or now have to redeem certain tracts of land, situate in the towns of Concord, Boscawen, Canterbury, Pittsfield and Franklin, in said County, as hereafter described and bounded;
and on the same day I left at the usual place of abode of each of said debtors, a notice in writing that the said right in equity would be sold at auction, at the auction room of L. L. Pickering in said Concord, on the 17th day of July 1880, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, and posted up like notices
at said auction room, and at the police station in Concord, at A. G. Kimball's store and post office in Boscawen, at depot and bridge in Canterbury, at depot and Webster House in Franklin, at Post Office and Gale Hotel in Pittsfield, two of the most public places in each of the before mentioned towns in which said property is situate. And on the said 17th day of July, I adjourned said sale to the 26th day of the same July, at the same place,
and hour, and then gave notice of said adjournment, by posting like notices as of the sale aforesaid. And on the 26th day of July, I sold the said right in equity, at the time and place appointed, as aforesaid, at auction to Stephen Higgin
he being the highest bidder, for the sum of One

115

Thousand Dollars and made and delivered to him a deed of said right in equity, in the form prescribed by law; and I have applied the said sum of One Thousand Dollars, after deducting my fees, and the charges of sale, in part satisfaction of this execution to wit: for the sum of nine hundred fifty eight 55/100 Dollars ($958.55)

Merrimack ss. March 31st. 1881.

This Execution having been delivered to me to be levied on real estate of the within named debtor, the aforesaid application by said debtor William Keene was made to me, and thereupon I caused three appraisers to be appointed, that is to say, Joseph Baker by the creditor within named, Robert C. Carr by said debtor William Keene and George E. Shepard by myself, and the said Joseph Baker Robert C. Carr and George E. Shepard, being all discreet and disinterested men resident in said County of Merrimack, and having been duly sworn by a Justice of the Peace as aforesaid, at the time certified as aforesaid found and certified to me under their hands as aforesaid, that the homestead described in their said certificate, in their opinion could not be divided without injury, and ought not to be decided, and that the whole interest of the said debtor William Horne therein was of the value of fifteen hundred sixty six dollars and sixty six cents, ($1566.66) and no more and that they appraised the same at that sum, and on the twenty eighth day of September 1880. I gave to the said debtor William Horne, a copy of said certificate with a notice from me attached thereto that unless the sum of ten hundred sixty six dollars and sixty six cents ($1066.66) the surplus of such value over the sum of five hundred dollars, should be paid within sixty days from the service of such notice, the property so appraised would be sold, and said surplus not having been so paid by said debtor within sixty days and no payment by the creditor within named being made I on the fourth day of December 1880. advertised the whole estate so appraised as aforesaid to be sold at public auction: I gave to the said debtor William Horne a notice in writting that the same would be sold at public auction at the

Kearsarge Hotel in Andover in said county of Merrimack on the 4th day of January 1881. at ten of the clock in the forenoon, and posted up like notices at the Kearsarge Hotel and at the store of Quimby & Heyworth and C. G. Pearce, three of the most public places in said town of Andover, in which the said property is situate and at the time and place so advertised I sold the same at public auction to the Loan & Trust Savings Bank, of Concord, it being the highest bidder for the sum of fifteen hundred sixty six dollars and sixty seven cents ($1566.67) and made and executed to the said Loan & Trust Savings Bank, a deed thereof and of the said sum, Loan the 12th day of January 1881. by the written request and agreement of said debtor William Horne, and Mary A. Horne wife of said William Horne, deposited said five hundred dollars in the Loan & Trust Savings Bank in Concord in said County to the credit of said debtor William Horne and the surplus of said sum of fifteen hundred sixty six dollars and sixty seven cents, I have applied to wit the sum of ten hundred sixty six dollars and sixty seven cents, after deducting my fees and the charges of sale in part satisfaction of said execution, to wit, for the sum of ten hundred eighteen dollars and seven cents.

Beginning at the northwesterly corner of Isaac Stearns land at a Pitch Pine tree near the South line of the North Pembroke road so called, thence running westerly by said Road sixty rods, and seven links to the northeast corner of land owned by Merrimack County Agricultural Society, thence about South in the direction of a stone post set in the ground at the South east corner of said Society's land, seventy two rods and twenty one links to a stake, thence east forty four rods twenty three links by land of J. H. Pearson to a stake near the northerly line of the Branch Turnpike, so called, thence by said Turnpike northeasterly twenty rods and four links to a stake at the south west corner of said Stearns land, thence by said Stearns land about north sixty one rods to place of beginning, containing twenty six acres and one hundred and fifty four square rods more or less. the same being subject to a mortgage to Isaac Clement made by said debtor dated the 13 day of November 1871. to secure the payment of one note of five hundred fifty six dollars and sixty six cents in one year from date and interest & one note for same amount, payable in two years from date and interest both of said notes being of same date as mortgage. Also another tract of land on said Dark Plains, bounded and described as follows. Southerly by the Free Bridge Road so called, westerly by land of William Shackford, northerly by centre of Herberts Gulley and easterly by land of James Shackford, the same being subject to a mortgage made by said debtor to one Joseph H. Fellows, dated about the fifteenth day of May 1875, to secure a note of two hundred dollars on demand and interest, and on the same day I posted up notices that the said right in equity would be sold at public auction at the office of Henry P. Rolfe in Concord in said County of Merrimack on the fourth day of April 1881, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, at the Auction Rooms of J. L. Pickering Warren Street, and at the Police Station on Main Street in said Concord being two of the most public places in said Concord in which said property is situate, and caused a like notice to be published in the Saturday Blade a newspaper printed in said County in said Concord on the sixth day of March, on the twentieth day of March and on the twenty seventh day of March 1861. and on said day I sold the said right in equity at the time and place appointed as aforesaid at public auction to Henry P. Rolfe he being the highest bidder for the sum of thirty five dollars and made and delivered to him a deed of said right in equity in the form prescribed by law, and I have applied the sum of thirty five dollars, after deducting my fees, and the charges of sale in part satisfaction of said execution, to wit, for the sum twenty three dollars.

Judgment rendered Feby 24. A. D. 1881.
Merrimack ss. April 23. 1881.
On the twenty second day of March 1881. I took all the right which the within named debtors or either of them had, on the twenty ninth day of December 1879, the day when said premises were attached on the original writ in this suit, or now have to redeem the following described real estate situate in Webster in said County bounded as follows: one piece thereof is bounded Northerly by land of William H. Austin: Easterly by land now or formerly owned by Plummer R. Stevens: Southerly by land of Luke Corser: Westerly by land of Peter Stone called the ten acre lot.
Another piece thereof called the five acre lot is bounded Northerly by land of Jabez Abbott: Easterly and Southerly by land of William H Austin: Westerly by land now or formerly owned by Peter Stone:
Another piece containing ten acres more or less is bounded Northerly and Easterly by the homestead farm of the said Cyrus and Elizabeth B. Fitz: Southerly and Westerly by land now or formerly of Plummer R. Stevens. Also one undivided half of the following described tracts of land situate in said Webster: one piece thereof is bounded Northerly by land of Jabez Abbott: Easterly by the highway Southerly by land of Anna Dorner Charles George and Plummer R. Stevens and Westerly by land formerly owned by Calvin Little, containing one hundred and twenty five acres more or less. Also another tract of land called the "Meadow" containing twenty acres more or less, bounded Southerly and Easterly by land now or formerly of Calvin Little: Southerly by land of William H. Austin, Westerly by land of Peter Stone. Another lot of fifteen acres more or less is bounded Northerly by land of Benjamin Sweatt and Calvin Little: Easterly by land of Calvin Little: Southerly by land now or formerly of Peter Stone: Westerly by land of George H. Stone: the same being subject to a mortgage made by said Cyrus Fitz to Betsey Corser to secure a debt of sixteen hundred and twenty seven dollars with interest thereon since 1873. Also subject to a mortgage to Eliza Bean for eight hundred and twenty five dollars with interest thereon since February 1879. making at the time of said sale thirty three hundred and six and 92/100 dollars incumbrance on said real estate: said premises were also sold subject to a life estate of said Betsey Corser in the house on said premises: and on the same day I gave to each of the said debtors a notice in writing, that the said right would be sold at public auction at the dwelling house of said Cyrus and Elizabeth B. Fitz in Webster aforesaid on the twenty third day of April 1881. at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, and posted up like notices at the town house in said Hebster and at the store of George Little in said Hebster two of the most public places in said town of Hebster, in which the said property is situate, and at said time and place as appointed I caused said right in equity to be sold to Elizabeth B. Fitz aforesaid, she being the highest bidder, for the sum of six hundred dollars and made and delivered to her a deed of the same, in the form prescribed by law, and I have applied said sum of six hundred dollars, after deducting my fees, and the charges of sale, in part satisfaction of said execution, to wit: for the sum of five hundred and ninety dollars.

Judgment rendered June 1. A. D. 1881.

June the 30th 1881. appeared Warren Clark and August the 29th 1881. appeared James L. Mason and Charles E.

Savory and each severally made oath that they would impartially appraise at its just value such real estate as should be shown them as the estate of the within named debtor to satisfy this execution.
Before me,
J. L. Pickering Justice of the Peace.
We, the subscribers having carefully examined a certain lot of land with the buildings thereon shown to us as the estate of said debtor, to hold from and after the decease of Nancy D. Curtis of said Concord, widow, who is tenant of the same for her natural life as her dower and homestead in the estate of Samuel Curtis deceased, situated in said Concord, on the east side of State Street and bounded on the north by land of William K. Bolt, on the east and south by land formerly of the late Judge Bellows and on the west by said State Street, do upon our oaths say that in our judgment said reversion in said real estate cannot be divided and set out by metes and bounds, without greatly impairing the value of the whole, and that seven hundred and thirty eleven hundred and sixty fifths $\left(\frac{730}{1165}\right)$ of said reversion is of the value of seven hundred and thirty dollars ($730.) and no more: and we have set off to the said creditor seven hundred and thirty undivided eleven hundred and sixty fifths of the estate of said debtor therein to the said creditor at that sum in payment of this execution and costs of levying the same. Judgment rendered June 1, A. D. 1881.

Merrimack ss. September 15. 1881. On the fourteenth day of June 1881. I took all the right which the within named debtor had, on ..... twenty-ninth day of March 1880, the day when said premises were attached on the original writ in this suit, or which she had on the said fourteenth day of June 1881. in equity to redeem a tract of land, with the appurtenances, situate in Loudon in said county, containing two hundred acres of land, more or less, to wit, a certain tract of land, with the buildings thereon, and being the same premises which were the homestead farm of Thomas D. Carroll situated in said Loudon, on the seventh day of February 1874. and the same conveyed to said Thomas D. Carroll by Charles H. Carpenter by deeds dated February 7. 1874. and recorded in the Merrimack County Registry of Deeds, Liber 230. Folio 11 and known as the Fifield Farm, the same being subject to a mortgage made by said Thomas D. Carroll to said Carpenter dated the seventh day of February 1874. to secure the payment of ten hundred and ninety-seven dollars with interest: and on the same day I gave to the said Phebe Carroll, debtor as aforesaid a notice in writing, that the said right would be sold at public auction, at the house of said Phebe Carroll, in London in said county, on the eighteenth day of July 1881. at ten o'clock in the forenoon, and posted up like notices at McCutchins Hotel — in said London and at the Post Office at London Village in said London, two of the most public places in said town of London in which said property is situated — and on the fifteenth day of July 1881. my said proceedings in the levy of the within execution on said real property, were stayed by an injunction granted and issued by the Honorable Isaac N. Blodgett, one of the Associate Justices of the Supreme Court of the State of New Hampshire, and my said proceedings, in the levy of said Execution on said real property by said injunction were so stayed and said injunction continued until the expiration of the thirteenth day of August 1881. when said injunction was dissolved by the Honorable Clinton W. Stanley, one of the Associate Justices of said Court. Whereupon on the fifteenth day of August 1881. and within thirty days after said injunction was dissolved as aforesaid, and while said lien on said property continued, I again took all the right which the within named debtor had, on the twenty-ninth day of March 1881. the day when said premises were attached on the original writ in this suit, which she had on the fourteenth day of June 1881. or now has in equity to redeem said tract of land, the same being subject to the mortgage aforesaid to secure the payment as aforesaid; and on the said fifteenth day of August 1881. I gave to the said debtor a notice in writing, that the said right would be sold at public auction, at the house of Phebe Carroll in said London, on the fifteenth day of September 1881. at ten o'clock in the forenoon, & posted up like notices at McCutchins Hotel — in said London and at the Post Office at London Village in said London two of the most public places in said town of London, in which said property is situated, and at said time & place so appointed I sold said right in equity to Daniel McCullough of said London, he being the highest bidder for the sum of thirteen hundred sixteen dollars and eighty four cents and made & delivered to him a deed of the same, in the form prescribed by law; and I have applied the said sum of thirteen hundred and sixteen dollars and eighty four cents, after deducting my fees and the charges of sale, in part satisfaction of said execution, to wit, for the sum of twelve hundred and seventy eight dollars and thirty
