Clinton Blake Justice of the Peace.

Merrimack ss. September 31st 1882. On the 19th day of August 1882. I took all the right which the within named debtor Stephen Gerrish had on the 19th day of August 1882. to redeem from the effect of certain executions in favor of The Citizens National Bank of Tilton against said Stephen Gerrish and Leonard Gerrish made April 1st 1882. by Clinton Blake Deputy Sheriff upon certain real estate of the said Stephen Gerrish: One tract situate in Franklin in said County bounded South by land of Esther George. West by land of James Taylor: South by the passway leading from Main Street. Westerly to said Taylors land: East by said Main Street, so called, with the right of way over said before mentioned passway from said Main Street to the rear of said lot.

Also another tract of land in said Franklin bounded South by land of Daniel S. Kimball: West by the Northern Railroad. South by land of Rufus H. Davis. East by the highway leading from the house of George R. Kniston past the Catholic Cemetery.

A third tract tract of land also situate in said Franklin bounded south by land of Edwin Judkins: West by land of Austin F Pike, North & East by land of Richard Judkins, and on the said 19th day of August I posted a notice in writing that the said right would be sold at public auction, at the Webster House in said Franklin on the twenty third day of September 1882. at two o'clock in the afternoon, at the said Webster House and at the Post Office of Franklin Falls two of the most public places in said Franklin and on the 22nd day of August 1882. I gave a like notice in hand to the said Stephen Gerrish, and at the time & place so appointed I offered the said right for sale at public auction to the highest bidder and no person appearing to bid thereon I adjourned said sale to the 30th of September 1882. at the same hour & place as aforesaid and posted notices of said adjournment at said Webster House and said post office of Franklin Falls. And on said 30th day of September at the hour & place to which said sale was adjourned as aforesaid I sold the right to redeem the piece first above described to Frank D. Parsons he being the highest bidder thereon for the sum of seventy five dollars and the right to redeem the second piece above described I sold at public auction as aforesaid to Austin F. Pike for the sum of fifteen Dollars and the right to redeem the third tract above described I also sold at public auction to said Austin F. Pike for the sum of fifteen dollars he being the highest bidder on each of said last named pieces, and made and executed to said Parsons and said Pike a deed of the same in the form prescribed by law, and I have applied the said several sums of seventy five dollars: fifteen and fifteen dollars in all the sum of One hundred & five dollars in part satisfaction of the within execution and my fees, and return this execution satisfied in part to writ for the sum of eighty two dollars -

No. 447 Judith Moore v. Reuben E. French. Octo. Term 1882.

To Hon. Justice Blodgett.

The above plaintiff represents that she took out execution in said action on Novem 27th 1882, which execution is returnable on the first Tuesday of April next, that a levy has been begun but by reason of the delay in hearing of the Bill in Equity plaintiff against Reuben E. French and Charles French it is desirable for the parties that the return day of said Execution be postponed to wit until May 1. 1883.

Wherefore she prays that your Honor may order said return day changed to May 1. 1883. By her Atty

Franklin J. Eastman
John S. Jewell
Gardner S. Abbott.

Merrimack, SS. September 17, 1883.

By direction of the creditor within named, I have extended this execution upon the tract of land above described, in manner following, to wit; I caused three appraisers to be appointed, that is to say, Franklin J. Eastman appointed by the creditor; John S. Jewell appointed by myself, and Gardner S. Abbott appointed by me for the debtor; the said debtor having been notified and requested to appoint an appraiser and having neglected to appoint any, the said Franklin J. Eastman, John S Jewell and Gardner S Abbott, being all discreet and disinterested men resident in the County; who being duly sworn by a justice of the peace impartially to appraise such real estate as should be shown them as the estate of the debtor, upon their oaths said that the above described tract of land, shown them as the estate of the said debtor, was of the value of five hundred dollars and no more; and the said appraisers set off the same land by metes and bounds as aforesaid at that sum, in part satisfaction of this execution and my fees; and I have delivered seizin and possession of the said tract of land to the said creditor:

I therefore return this execution satisfied to the extent of Four Hundred and seventy six dollars, and twenty eight cents.

Judgment rendered, May 18. A. D. 1885.
To Wm. K. Norton Sheriff of the County of Merrimack -

The undersigned being the debtor on whose real estate you have an execution in favor of Nancy G. Brown to be levied requests you to cause a homestead of the value of five hundred dollars to be set off and assigned out of the interest of the said debtor in the homestead now occupied by him and his family in Bow said homestead to be taken from the house and premises so occupied being that portion described as follows: to wit.: One half the wood shed, the passage-way leading from kitchen to wood-shed on north side of house, the pantry, the kitchen, the cellar and stairs leading to the same, the dining-room, the entry on So. side of house, the South-west corner front room on ground floor, the South-west corner front room on second floor. with the right to use the front door, front hall & front stairs, also the right to use one undivided half of the yard south and west of the house and shed. and I hereby appoint Giles Wheeler of Concord appraiser on my part.

John Brown 2d

Merrimack ss. June 13, 1885.

Then Giles Wheeler, John C. Wheeler and Samuel C. Clement, appointed appraisers upon the foregoing application of John Brown 2nd, made oath that they would faithfully and impartially appraise and set off a homestead, such as the said John Brown 2nd should select out of the interest of the within named debtor in the homestead and estate in said application mentioned not exceeding five hundred dollars in value. Before me.

Wm. K. Norton, Justice of the Peace.

To William K. Norton, Sheriff of the County of Merrimack.

We the above named appraisers, have carefully examined a house and lot of land situate in the town of Bow in the County of Merrimack, occupied by the within named debtor, John

Brown 2nd, and his family as a homestead, and in particular the following portions thereof, namely: the northerly half of the wood-shed, being a portion thereof two feet in width (including the walk) extending from its easterly end to the pantry; the pump opening out of said walk, at the easterly end thereof; the entry way between the kitchen and said walk; the pantry opening out of said entry way; the kitchen, the dining-room; the sitting-room; the front hall; the entry on the south side of the house, between the dining-room and the sitting-room, all cupboards and closets opening out of all said rooms, the chamber over the sitting-room with the right to go to and from the same over the stairs and hall-ways used for that purpose, in common with the occupants of the other parts of said house; all that portion of the cellar situate northerly of a plane run from the center perpendicular line of the easterly wall to the westerly wall, parallel with the southerly wall, with the right to use the stairs and the bulk-head and a reasonable portion of the southerly part of the cellar between said bulkhead and said northerly part, in common with the occupants of said southerly part to go to and from said northerly part; also that portion of the yards westerly and southerly of the house, enclosed within the following lines: beginning at the center of the front door and running thence westerly to the centre of the front gate; thence southerly about 36 feet and two inches to the stone post at the southerly side of the large gate opening from the highway into the back yard; thence in a straight line that shall be drawn so as to be parallel with the south side of the house to the westerly end of the barn, thence northerly, westerly and northerly, following the end of the barn, the southerly side of the house and its westerly end to the point begun at; also the right to pass, in common with the occupants of the south side of the shed from the yard over said south part of the shed in a convenient place to the northerly half thereof for the purpose of putting in wood and making a convenient and reasonable use of said north part; excepting and reserving however from the foregoing for the benefit of the occupants of other parts of said house, the right to use the front door, front hall, privy a reasonable way through the dining-room, kitchen, and walk from the front hall to the privy, the south half of the shed, the barn and the southerly portion of the cellar and also to use a pass-way leading from said large gate to the barn, the South half of the shed and the said bulk-head, all said rights to be enjoyed and used in common with the occupants of the homestead right hereby set off - the foregoing portions of said house and lot having been selected by John Brown 2nd aforesaid for a homestead, and we do upon our oaths, say that the said described real estate so selected by the said John Brown 2nd is of the value of five hundred dollars, and no more, and we have set off the same by said metes and bounds as a homestead, the said debtor being the owner thereof in fee.
