Please do not disregard this Personal Property listing form.

An annual and timely listing for your property is required by NCGS 105-308 and 105-311. Failure to return the listing form within the listing period timeframe of January 1 through January 31, will result in a penalty. If you still own the personal property listed on the form, please check the box OWN, sign and date the form and submit back to the office. If you do not own personal property in Pamlico County and would like for us to stop sending you a listing form each year, please check DELETE on the listing form, sign, and date the form and submit it back to the office, so we may update our records. If you own a mobile home in Pamlico County, please make sure you fill out the section for Physical Address, sign, and date the form and submit back to the office. An extension of time until April 15 may be obtained by submitting a written request to the Tax Office by January 31 per NCGS 105-307(c).
