

For Immediate Release:

News Release

The Polk County Emergency Management Agency Receives Donated Medical Kits

(Polk County, Ga), March 3, 2022 a donation of two emergency medical bags were made to the Polk County Emergency Management Agency. The bags were furnished by the Atrium Health Floyd Emergency Management department and supplies for the bags were furnished by Atrium Health Floyd Emergency Medical Services. These emergency medical kits will allow us to render first aid to our community should we roll up on an emergency scene says Bobby Dockery, Director of Polk County Emergency Management Agency. We would like to thank our partners at Atrium Health Floyd Emergency Management, and Atrium Health Floyd Emergency Medical Services for their generous donation.

Pictured right, Tim McElwee, Safety Officer/Emergency Preparedness Coordinator for Floyd Polk Medical Center/Floyd Cherokee (Ala.) Medical Center.

Pictured left, Bobby Dockery, Director Polk County Emergency Management Agency

###