- V. NEW BUSINESS-

The mayor turned the floor over to Trustee Jackson for final words. He thanked the citizens for allowing him to serve as trustee these past four years. He hopes the next group will have the same camaraderie that this board has. Thanked Trustee Dyson, Ms. Echols and Ms. Murphy for their help.

Trustee Maxey stated it was a pleasure working with him, stay up.

Trustee Harper agreed with Trustee Maxey.

Trustee Dyson said it has been a pleasure working with him, be encouraged.

Clerk Dyson stated it's been so nice working with you, she appreciated you asking questions and finding out how things should go. Thank you for your contributions to the board.

VI. STANDING COMMITTEE REPORTS- None

VII. CITIZENS COMMENTS

Ms. Fulson asked Trustee Jackson whether he will still be a part of Rain Ready and help with the Festival Committee

Ms. Murphy asked since he is V.P. of his block club, will he step up and be more active

Ms. Echols said before Trustee Jackson became a trustee; he always helped her. He decided to run for trustee to help the village move in the right direction and she feels it is going in the right direction. He hung in there, despite everything.

The mayor reminded everyone about the swearing in on April 29th @ 7PM at the community center. The next regular meeting will be on May 13th, new business will be on the agenda.
