Celebrating
Our New Families

Annual Party to Welcome New Residents On September 7

By Nancy Jardini and Morris Panner, Essex Avenue

On Sunday, September 7, from 4:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m., come one and all to welcome our new neighbors at our beautiful Town pool.

There is much to celebrate this year. We continue to attract a vibrant group of new families. We have more than a dozen new families coming to our Town, which shows that we are attracting wonderful new people.

We have also observed that, as I am sure you have too, they tend to stay.

This is your chance to come meet your new neighbors and to catch up with old friends. Bring your children and plan to listen to music and relax with a glass of wine or soda and some other light refreshments provided by the Town. While the adults socialize, we will have an entertainer to amuse the younger set. Mayor Jeffrey Slavin (Warwick) will introduce the new residents at 5:00 p.m. and the children's entertainment will follow. If the weather is good, there will be swimming.

On My Mind

By Mayor Jeffrey Slavin

Still Searching for Common Ground

As I watched with great pleasure a recent interview of our First Lady Michelle Obama and her predecessor Laura Bush during the Africa Summit, I was reminded once again how polarized our country is and how no one seems to be doing anything about it.

This conversation, facilitated by our brilliant Bethesda neighbor Cokie Roberts, featured two highly admired women with opposing political agendas having a lovely, respectful conversation where there genuinely seemed to be lots of commonality. It made me realize that our differences are not as broad as we might imagine. Sadly, though, when I posted this conversation on my Facebook page along with these positive remarks, not one person commented!

I have spoken a lot recently in public about how we self-segregate with like-minded people, whether it's to "bookclub", pray, exercise, reside, party, eat, or shop. We tend not to associate with those who don't share our views. Such divisions lead to conflict, stress, and lack of advancement on many community, state, and national issues. Yet, if our first ladies can sit down and find common ground, why can't the rest of us?

If we are going to make any progress in the United States, we will have to stop dividing ourselves and start reaching out to those who have different views. Knowing Somerset residents as I do, I think we all have the capacity to surprise ourselves if we listen to differing voices, come to an understanding, find common goals, and act to achieve them.

Bethesda Fire Department Open House

By Gail Werner, Town of Somerset Representative to the Bethesda Fire Department, Surrey Street

On September 27, from 12 noon to 3:30 p.m., the Bethesda Fire Department will host an Open House at station #6 on the corner of Wisconsin Avenue and Bradley Boulevard. This event provides a great opportunity for fun and for learning fire safety tips that could protect you, your family and your property. Also, you get to say hello and thank you to the brave firefighters who would be on the scene if a fire or rescue emergency were to strike in our community.

On the fun side, there will be games for children, a bounce house, hats, balloons, and coloring books. There will also be a chance to climb aboard a real fire truck and have one's picture taken. Fire Engines and other equipment will be on display, and Ronald McDonald will be there to greet visitors and talk about fire safety. And there will be free drinks and food.

Ronald McDonald at the Bethesda Fire Department open house.

Additionally, you can learn about the new smoke detector law and how it applies to your home, how to make a fire safety plan, fire safety tips for the kitchen, and how to become more alert to protecting your home from fire.

After meeting the firefighters and seeing the apparatus, exhibits and demonstrations, you will understand why the Bethesda Fire Department is considered the gold standard for Montgomery County in firefighting and emergency rescues. With funds generously donated by our community, the Board of Directors of the Bethesda Fire Department has made purchases that contribute to the well-being of the firefighters and to the acquisition of state-of-the-art equipment. For example, the LIFEPAK lifesaving monitoring device which is used in life-threatening emergencies or acute traumas, has made a difference in our community.

The Bethesda Fire Department was established in 1932 by local citizens. Today, it is run by a volunteer Board of Directors and has several volunteer firefighters on its Board.

Development Projects Near Somerset

By Marnie Shaul, Council Vice-President, Uppingham Street

Our residential community is near two areas that are slated for future development: River Road/Westbard and Downtown Bethesda. The Montgomery County Council has directed the Montgomery Planning Board to develop new plans for these areas. The plans may change the zoning on several parcels of land, altering how the land is used and how densely it can be developed. The plans will guide development of these areas for many years. The County Council expects to approve these new plans in about 18 months.

We can shape the plans by participating in the planning process.

The River Road/Westbard plan likely will have more impact on Somerset. Equity One, which owns many properties along Westbard Avenue (including the Giant, bowling alley, and a gas station), wants to redevelop its properties, which may require zoning changes. River Road property owners may also want their properties rezoned.

Somerset belongs to the Citizens Coordinating Committee on Friendship Heights (CCCFH), which participated in developing the 1982 plan for Westbard and continues to monitor development in this area. Council Member Barbara Zeughauser (Trent) and I attend meetings of CCCFH and its River Road-Westbard subcommittee. On August 13, CCCFH leaders, including myself, met with the new Planning Board Chair, Casey Anderson, and his key staff to discuss our vision for this area: that redevelopment be focused on serving the needs of the surrounding communities rather than becoming a regional destination. We also discussed how we can best participate in the planning process. Planning Board staff said that they will convene a large public meeting to kick off the plan in late September, at a date and place to be determined. At that time, the staff will announce next steps for public participation. Also, over the coming months, CCCFH will reach out to residents of its 19 member communities, including Somerset, in an effort to communicate with the Planning Board with one voice.

Staff of the Planning Board have been working to update the Downtown Bethesda Sector Plan for months. Its work to date is posted on its website: www.montgomeryplanning.org. Planning Board staff have held several public workshops,

Next Bulk Refuse Pickup

The Town will hold its fall bulk trash pickup on Monday, October 6, 2014. Please place your trash at the curb by 7:00 a.m. that morning. No liquid latex paint. Appliances must have freon removed. No hazardous waste, construction debris, or yard waste. If you have any questions, please contact Unity Disposal directly at 301-490-8604 and ask for Darlene.

School Starting: Drive Cautiously

With school starting, please remember that many of the children who live in Somerset walk to school. Please be mindful of this when commuting through the Town.

Public Safety: New No Handheld Device Signage and Handheld Device Law

Please be advised that the Town is installing five new No Handheld Device While Driving signs at various locations in the Town, including one near the Somerset Elementary School. Maryland's

Handheld Device Law states that a driver of a motor vehicle that is in motion may not use the driver's hands to use a cell phone other than to initiate or terminate a wireless telephone call or to turn on or turn off the handheld telephone. With certain specific exceptions, all Maryland drivers are prohibited from using their hands to operate a cell phone, unless the vehicle is stopped.

Pooper Scooper Law

Periodically, we receive notices in the Town Hall about pet deposits not being appropriately cleaned up. This is a reminder there is a "Pooper Scooper" Law in Montgomery County. Here is a summary of the law:

Animal Defecation ("pooper scooper" law) (Montgomery County Code, Sec. 5-203(a)(2))

An owner must not allow an animal to damage or defecate on property outside of the owner's property. An animal may defecate on public property or the common area of property in which the owner shares an interest if the owner immediately removes and disposes of the feces by a sanitary method approved by the Director. Feces may be picked up in a plastic bag. If this bag is placed inside another plastic bag, it may be put out for disposal in your normal household trash. Penalty for Violation – $100

E-Journal Sign-Up

We would like to urge as many residents as possible to receive their Town Journal electronically. As a Tree City USA and a PLANT Maryland Community, Somerset wants to reduce its impact on the environment by encouraging residents to receive their copy of the Town Journal by email. If you are not currently on the Town Journal email distribution list and would like to receive an electronic copy, please contact the Town Hall at manager@townofsomerset.com or at 301-657-3211.

Art Exhibit at Town Hall on Sunday, September 21

By Barbara Zeughauser, Council Member, Trent Street
Please mark your calendar for Sunday, September 21, from 4:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. and stop by Town Hall to view an art exhibit displaying the work of Sue Ousterhout. In addition to being an artist, Sue is an interior designer and architect, and worked closely with the Town on color and furniture selection during the recent renovation of the Town Hall.

Sue has exhibited her work at a number of places, including the Fraser Gallery in Bethesda, the BlackRock Center for the Arts in Germantown, and at NIH. Sue's husband, Lou Balodemas (also an architect), has worked with the Town for many years. He was instrumental in the renovation of Somerset Elementary School, and was the project manager of our pool house renovation. Most recently, he managed the renovation of the first floor of our Town Hall.

We hope you will visit the newly renovated Town Hall to see Sue's exhibit.

Annual Welcome Party

By Mayor Jeffrey Slavin

August is usually a relaxed time in Somerset, with many residents on vacation, but with it often comes a spike in minor crime in Town. Please be sure to lock all your house doors, garages, and cars. Leave a light or two on at night if you are away. Make sure someone brings in your newspapers and mail. Do not advertise your absences on the listserv or anywhere else. If we are all vigilant and help each other, there will be fewer incidents of theft or burglary this month—and in the future.

I want to publicly thank rising Syracuse University freshman Aaron Bobeck (Warwick), who has loyally been the maestro of our sound equipment at practically every public event in Town in recent years. We are expecting great success for this remarkable young man as he pursues his career dreams.

As I walk around Town daily, I continue to see beer cans, candy wrappers, and cigarette butts on our streets and sidewalks, especially around our numerous construction projects. I hope that the owners of these properties will alert their contractors and sub-contractors that our Town does not tolerate litter. To address this problem, next month I will ask the Town Council to support Somerset’s participation in a “One Piece” anti-litter campaign that was originated in Baltimore City by Council Member Nick Mosby. We need to do everything possible to enhance our streetscape.

It gives me great pleasure to report that one of our own, Veronique Marier (Essex), was recently named as the new Executive Director of Bethesda Green, a local non-profit that is a public-private partnership whose goal is to make our part of Montgomery County more environmentally sustainable. Please watch for exciting ways in which you can get involved with this important group in the upcoming months.

I am pleased that a Town resident has applied for a position on the Western Montgomery County Citizens Advisory Board. The WMCCAAB, which advises the County Executive and Council on local issues, currently has a vacancy for someone from the Bethesda-Chevy Chase area. The Board has committees on land use, transportation, public safety, budget, and quality of life. Meetings generally take place on the third Monday night of the month near the Bethesda Metro. At one time, the late Council member Peter Gubser served on this board. I feel it would be beneficial for the Town to have one of our own representing us, so I have written to the County Executive in support of the resident’s application.

Report from the FrogWatcher

By Jeanette Kreiser, Falstone Avenue

Drama at the Vinton Park Pond!

Two bull frogs in the pond? Frogs splashing and jumping around? What was happening?

Several weeks ago, Council Member Barbara Condos (Falstone) excitedly called to inform me that she thought she heard two bull frogs croaking at the pool, accompanied by much splashing and commotion. About 15 minutes later, when I arrived at the pond eager to witness this exciting event, the last vestiges of daylight were gone, and the pond seemed tranquil. There were no sounds of a commotion—and only one bullfrog was to be heard. Several days later, Council Vice President Marnie Shaul (Uppingham) confirmed and elaborated on Barbara's report. We are left with a mystery. What happened at the pond that evening? Could the arrival of a second bullfrog have precipitated a struggle that resulted in just one victorious male bullfrog remaining in the pond? Or, is there another explanation?

A mystery croaker at the pond stumps me—and the biologists.

In mid-July, while at my weekly frogwatch post, I thought that I heard some new and unfamiliar frog calls, but the full chorus Upland Chorus Frogs often drowned out the intermittent and faint sounds, and I could not be sure of my observation. The following week, I heard the calls again—this time louder than before. Now more certain that I was indeed hearing something new at the pond, I recorded the calls to more carefully compare them with the calls of frogs indigenous to in Montgomery County. But, I could not find any calls that matched those that I had recorded.

I sent my recording to Montgomery County FrogWatch. The local administrator, Virginia Vassalotti, could not identify the calls and my recording was sent on to those more expert than she. The experts, too, were uncertain, but they did think the sounds came from some species of frog they could not identify. Biologists at Maryland Department of Natural Resources were not 100% confident but did believe it was a grey treefrog. They suggested it might be a young or deformed/injured individual.

A New Finding from Another FrogWatch Location in Montgomery County

There was a bit of excitement in the larger Montgomery County FrogWatch community when one FrogWatch volunteer heard a green treefrog at one of her monitoring sites. This was BIG news as this is the first green treefrog found in Montgomery County (usually coastal plain species)!

Let us know what you hear around the Town over the next week or two. Generally, the season for frog calls ends in August, but it seems to be running late this year, judging from the sequence of dominant frog calls I am hearing.

which several Somerset residents have attended, to hear the preferences of local residents and businesses. In addition, a coalition of 18 residential communities is monitoring the effect of proposed development and urging the Planning Board to consider the effect of additional development on traffic congestion, public transportation, public schools, bike lanes and parks so that the high quality of life we enjoy will continue. I attend meetings of this coalition on behalf of Somerset and expect to periodically write about its work for the Journal.

CCCFH meets in the Somerset Town Hall on the third Wednesday of the month at 8:00 p.m. Each meeting has an update on plans for downtown Bethesda and River Road-Westbard. I hope that many residents will attend these meetings and the late September meeting.

Somerset's Nonagenarians

By Dolores Bartning, Surrey Street, and Barbara Marblestone, Trent Street

This past June, we started our series of feature articles on the Town's nonagenarians, residents ages 90 to 99. These individuals are local treasures, the ones who helped make Somerset what it is today. They had the foresight and fortitude to nurture and build our Town. This month, we are highlighting the ninth nonagenarian in this series. Five other residents in this special category have been identified, and we hope to be able to feature some of them next month.

Corinne Stevens

Corinne Stevens came to Somerset in 1955, when her husband established his dental practice in a wing of their house. That office now is used for the dental practice of her son, James (Jim). Corinne remembers that in the 1950s, there seemed to be a doctor's or dentist's office "on nearly every other corner along Wisconsin." She recalls that the street had two lanes each way and parking all along. The land to the south, across from their home, was a forest. A family lived in the red house that is now the Town Hall. Just beyond, where the tennis courts are situated, there was a community garden. The schoolyard was at the end of the block. Kids played kickball in the street, for there was little traffic then. As Corinne says, "Children had plenty of room to play."

Corinne's family members established lifelong friendships with many of their original neighbors. She still refers to the houses on her block by the names of those owners, for example, the "Dyer house" or the "Paul house." She remembers that families visited on front lawns and got together socially. She says "Everyone got along," and "we liked all the people we knew from the street." Jim plays golf regularly with friends from childhood.

Like many in Somerset, Corinne misses the Woodward & Lothrop ("Woodies") store in Friendship Heights. She recalls that the land the store occupied had formerly been a driving range. Living along Wisconsin Avenue, her perspective on present-day traffic may differ from residents whose homes are on interior town streets. She is concerned that increase in traffic on Wisconsin has led to additional cars using her street as a cut-through. The introduction of bus rapid transit could create excessive traffic noise. The Town Hall, the hub of town and private functions as well as community classes, brings more traffic to her street.

Corinne was born in 1923 in Duluth, MN. She moved to DC in wartime 1943 and took a job with the FBI. One day she and some of her friends went to Glen Echo Amusement Park. While the other girls rode the merry-go-round, she held their purses and watched. A nice young man came up to her and struck up a conversation. The reader can guess what follows: within a year the two were married!

While Jim and his brother, Lee, were growing up, Corinne was a homemaker. Both boys attended parochial schools, and she was active there. When they went to college, Corinne started her longtime vocation of managing the office in her husband's dental practice. She also served as president of the Maryland Women's Dental Auxiliary. She played bridge into her 80s with several of her early friends. The family spent many happy days on its boat fishing and navigating Maryland waterways, and taking longer excursions north along the Atlantic coast. She and her husband often traveled to California, sometimes to Mexico and Canada, and crossed the Atlantic on the QE II. She ventured further, to Norway and other distant places, with her sister.

Jim arranged for and sat in on this interview. As he clarified and expanded upon his mother's recollections, she, in turn, nodded with proud appreciation. Both mother and son, two generations, have strong positive feelings for this community.

Save the Date: Nonagenarian Social on September 10

There will be an ice cream social for our Town nonagenarians on Wednesday, September 10 at 1:30 p.m. at the Town pool. If anyone in the community wishes to greet our nonagenarians, please stop by.
