As we continue to receive information associated with the ongoing public health concerns from the CDC, State of NJ, Burlington County Board of Health, Burlington County Office of Emergency Management and School Districts, the Township of Tabernacle has decided to take the following precautions to help reduce the risks to our staff, volunteers and residents by doing the following:

1. Municipal Offices will be closed to the general public effective March 17th until further notice.
2. We encourage residents and contractors to use the Drop-Box located on the side of the buildings for court fines, dog/mercantile licenses, tax payments. Use Drop-Box at Annex Building for permits. We will email or mail receipts.
3. The Construction Office and Fire Official will conduct inspections under certain specific circumstances. Please contact the construction office for more information. (609) 268-1665.
4. The Municipal Parks are closed until further notice.
5. All recreation activities are cancelled until further notice.
6. The Township Committee Meeting scheduled for March 23 cancelled.
7. The Municipal Court Sessions are cancelled until April 7.
